But who were these saints that penned the lines connecting sinners to salvation and hopelessness to hope in Christ? In Season 4 of this DVD series, The Story Behind the Song, Evangelist Donnie Swaggart tells us their names and why they were moved to write songs about the Savior.

The Conspiracy

Part I

FROM THE BOOK, JOSEPH, BY JIMMY SWAGGART

“And a certain man found him (found Joseph), and, behold, he was wandering in the field: and the man asked him, saying, What do you seek? And he said, I seek my brethren: tell me, I pray you, where they feed their flocks. And the man said, They are departed from here; for I heard them say, Let us go to Dothan. And Joseph went after his brethren, and found them in Dothan. And when they saw him afar off, even before he came near unto them, they conspired against him to kill him.”

—GENESIS 37:15-18

LITTLE DID JACOB realize that his sending Joseph to his brothers would instigate a time of sorrow of unparalleled proportions. It would break his heart to such an extent that, in fact, there are no words that could adequately describe, at least properly, what Joseph's brothers did to him and, thereby, to their aged father Jacob.

Such is sin. It has no heart. It truly steals, kills, and destroys.

The sons of Jacob were guilty of murder, for their hatred fostered such. The Scripture plainly says that "whosoever hates his brother is a murderer" (I John 3:15), and this even though the deed itself may not be carried out.

The sons of Jacob hated their brother because their father loved him. Joseph was a type of Christ, for though He was the beloved Son of His Father and hated by a wicked world, yet the Father sent Him out of His bosom to visit us in great humility and love. He came from Heaven to earth to seek and save us, and that despite our hatred toward Him.

Christ In The Actions Of Joseph

He came to His own, and His own not only received Him not, but consulted saying, "This is the Heir, come, let us kill Him; crucify Him, crucify Him!" This He submitted to in pursuance of His design to redeem and save us.

As we go forward in this narrative, we will see Christ in the actions of Joseph set out perfectly before us. As such, we must learn what the Holy Spirit is telling us through the life of this man.

Dothan was about 12 miles north of Shechem, with Shechem being about 50 miles north of Hebron. So, Joseph would

The Priceless Corner

We have set aside this corner of The Evangelist to show God's plan of salvation. If you are unsure where you will go when you die, please listen to what God has said in His Word:

1. GOD LOVES YOU!

"For God so loved the world, that he gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life" (John 3:16).

2. MAN IS A SINNER, AND SIN HAS SEPARATED HIM FROM GOD

"For there is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not" (Eccl. 7:20).

"For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God" (Rom. 3:23).

3. JESUS CHRIST IS THE ONLY REMEDY FOR SIN

"For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that He might bring us to God ..." (1 Peter 3:18).

"Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved" (Acts 4:12).

4. YOU MUST RECEIVE JESUS CHRIST AS YOUR PERSONAL LORD AND SAVIOR

Jesus calls this experience the new birth. He told Nicodemus: "Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God" (John 3:3).

We invite you now to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as your personal Savior. "But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His Name" (John 1:12).

WE BELIEVE:

- The Bible is the inspired and only infallible and authoritative written Word of God (Ps. 119; Matt. 4:4; Luke 24:27).
- There is one God, eternally existent in three persons: God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit (1 John 5:7).
- In the deity of our Lord Jesus Christ, in His virgin birth, in His sinless life, in His miracles, in His vicarious and atoning death, in His bodily resurrection, in His ascension to the right hand of the Father, in His personal future return to this earth in power and glory to rule a thousand years (Jn. 1:1-4; Eph. 2:13-18; Rev. 19-20).
- In the blessed hope — the rapture of the church at Christ's coming (1 Thess. 4:13-18).
- The only means of being cleansed from sin is through Repentance and faith in the precious blood of Christ (Rom. 5:1; Eph. 2:8-9, 13-18).
- Regeneration by the Holy Spirit is absolutely essential for personal salvation (John 3:5-8; Titus 3:5).
- The redemptive work of Christ on the cross provides healing of the human body in answer to believing prayer (Ex. 15:25-26; James 5:14-15; 1 Peter 2:24).
- The baptism with the Holy Spirit according to Acts 2:4 is given to believers who ask for it (Acts 2:4; 10:44-46; 19:1-7).
- In the sanctifying power of the Holy Spirit by Whose indwelling the Christian is enabled to live a holy life (Rom. 6:3-14; 8:1-2, 11).
- In the resurrection of both the saved and the lost: the one to everlasting life and the other to everlasting damnation (Rev. 20:5-6, 11-15).

PRAY THIS PRAYER AND MEAN IT WITH ALL OF YOUR HEART:
"Dear Lord Jesus, I now realize that I am a sinner. I accept the fact that You died for me on the rugged cross of Calvary. I now open my heart's door and receive You as Savior and Lord of my life. Please take full control of me and help me to be the kind of Christian You want me to be. Amen."

If you prayed this prayer in all sincerity, you are now a child of God. So that we might rejoice with you, we invite you to fill out this coupon and mail it to Jimmy Swaggart Ministries, P.O. have to walk more than 60 miles to find his brothers.

Even before he arrived there, that is, when they saw him coming, they conspired to kill him. It was thus so with Christ as well. When He was born, Herod sought to kill Him (Matt. 2).

Shechem?

If it is to be remembered, Shechem is the place where Simeon and Levi killed all the men of that small town because their sister Dinah had been raped.

Some period of time had now passed, but the greater reason that the brothers were not fearful of reprisal is probably due to their great strength.

That Jacob would have to send a part of his herds so far away as to Shechem — a distance of some fifty miles or more — tells us how large these herds were and, therefore, the power of Jacob. There is a possibility that there was quite a number of other men with the brothers at that time and, no doubt, were actually serving in their employ, which would have made this group powerful indeed.

Reuben

"And they said one to another, Behold, this dreamer comes. Come now therefore, and let us kill him, and cast him into some pit, and we will say, Some evil beast has devoured him: and we shall see what will become of his dreams. And Reuben heard it, and he delivered him out of their hands; and said, Let us not kill him. And Reuben said unto them, Shed no blood, but cast him into this pit that is in the wilderness, and lay no hand upon him; that he might rid him out of their hands, to deliver him to his father again" (Gen. 37:19-22).

Partly through the personal character of Joseph, partly through the evil passions of his brethren, partly through the apparently casual incidents of the neighborhood, partly through the Spirit of righteousness working in the heart of Reuben, and partly through the weakness and fondness of Jacob, we see all things working together in God's hands! He wove the web composed of many single threads into one united, orderly pattern as a whole in which we are able to trace His own thought and purpose.

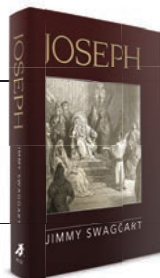

When we look at Joseph in the pit and in the prison, and look at him afterward as ruler over all the land of Egypt, we see the difference between the thoughts of God and the thoughts of men. So, when we look at the Cross and at the throne of the Majesty in the heavens, we see the same thing.

Nothing ever brought out the real state of man's heart toward God but the coming of Christ.

Conscience

Reuben was actually the firstborn; consequently, it was to him that the birthright should have gone. This would have guaranteed him a double portion of Jacob's riches when the patriarch came down to die. So, he would have had the most to gain from Joseph's death, who, by now, had been given the birthright instead. However, Reuben seemed to have some conscience left, where his brethren did not. As such, the Scripture says, “He delivered him out of their hands; and said, Let us not kill him.”

Several things greatly rankled these men.

The dreams angered them greatly, as did the coat of many colors. So, they would kill the one who dreamed the dreams and strip the coat from him, thinking to silence his voice. Little did they know what the future held!

Reuben suggested that they put Joseph in a pit, which they did, with him thinking that he would come back later and rescue the boy. Evidently he had to go some place. When he returned, he found that Joseph was gone. They had sold him to the Ishmaelites.

Along with Reuben, Judah was the one who saved the life of Joseph, suggesting that they sell him as a slave. However, this was little an act of mercy on the part of Judah inasmuch as under normal circumstances, they were consigning him to a life worse than death.

Twenty Pieces Of Silver

“And it came to pass, when Joseph was come unto his brethren, that they stripped Joseph out of his coat, his coat of many colors that was on him; And they took him, and cast him into a pit: and the pit was empty, there was no water in it. And they sat down to eat bread: and they lifted up their eyes and looked, and, behold, a company of Ishmaelites came from Gilead with their camels bearing spicery and balm and myrrh, going to carry it down to Egypt. And Judah said unto his brethren, What profit is it if we kill our brother, and conceal his blood?

Come, and let us sell him to the Ishmaelites, and let not our hand be upon him: for he is our brother and our flesh. And his brethren were content. Then there passed by Midianites merchantmen; and they drew and lifted up Joseph out of the pit, and sold Joseph to the Ishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver: and they brought Joseph into Egypt” (Gen. 37:23-28).

The merchants who bought Joseph were called both Midianites and Ishmaelites. They were sons of Abraham by Hagar and Keturah, making them kin in some distant way to the Israelites.

These brothers sitting down to eat bread, even after they had thrown Joseph into the pit, shows how hard their hearts were, indicating deplorable brutality on their part. In their minds, they had satisfactorily disposed of the young man and his dreams. This coat of colors, which signified that he had now been chosen for the birthright instead of Reuben, would be used to deceive his father.

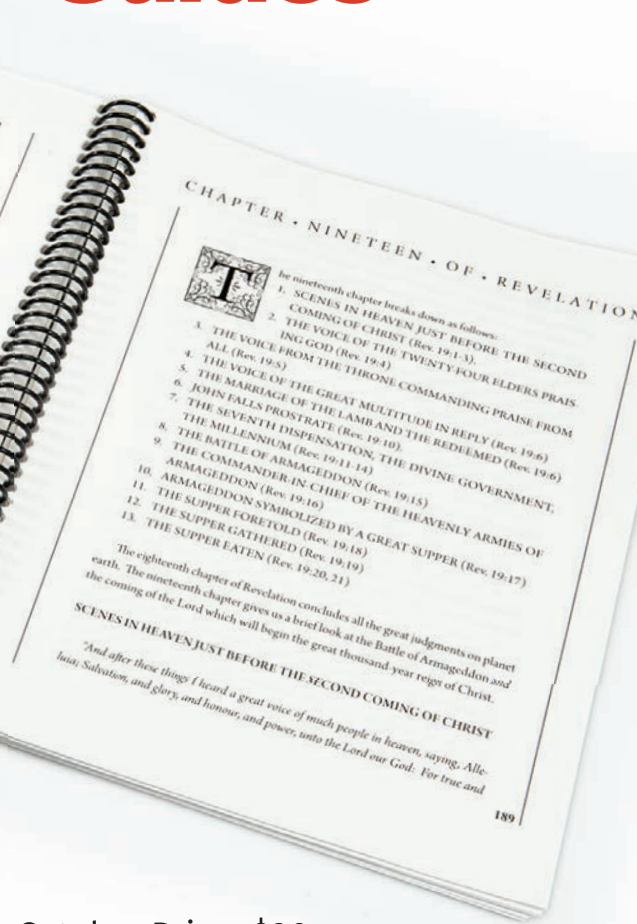

Evidently, when they put him in the pit, their idea was to let him starve to death, but now, a change of events came about in that they spotted a camel train coming near them and going down to Egypt. They would sell Joseph as a slave to these Ishmaelites and make some profit from the transaction. Judah was the one who suggested this. They would get twenty pieces of silver. This is a type of Christ being sold for thirty pieces of silver.

As they stripped the coat from Joseph, likewise, they cast lots for Jesus' robe. ✚

The Prophecies And Symbols Of Revelation (11-061)

The book of Revelation, wrought with breathtaking visions, symbolism, and prophecy may be the most difficult book for believers to read and yet so important to understand. In this beautifully illustrated study guide, Evangelist Jimmy Swaggart leads the way through all twenty-two chapters of this incredible book that closes out the canon of Scripture and explains the mysteries of this divine revelation given to John the Beloved so long ago. This easy-to-read study guide is a must for any believer who desires to know more about the battle of Armageddon, the second coming of Christ, and the ultimate hope of the church and Israel.

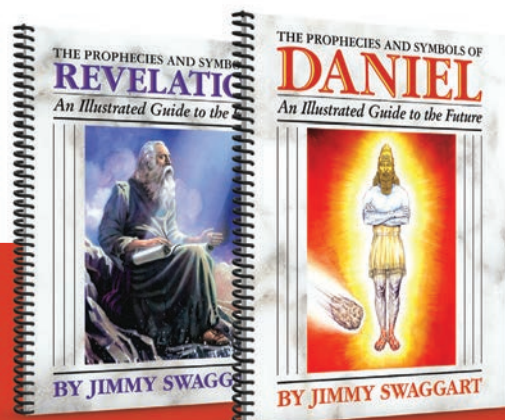

The Prophecies And Symbols Of Daniel (11-062)

God chose the prophet Daniel to foresee what would happen in his day, ours, and those yet to come. Through visions, Daniel saw the rise of the Antichrist, his empire, the seat of the beast, and the chilling events leading up to the second coming of Christ. When the Lord gave these visions to the prophet, He did so with symbolism, which is the key to understanding Daniel's prophecies. In this color-illustrated study guide, Evangelist Jimmy Swaggart discerns the symbolism the Holy Spirit used to reveal past, present, and future events that would affect all of humanity. This unique study offers readers the opportunity to hear, as Daniel heard, and see as only he saw, the future of nations and empires—from ancient Bible days until the coming of the Lord.

ARTICLE BY Frances Swaggart

Q&A with Sister Swaggart

Q. Is God really merciful to people?

A.
Yes. In fact, the Lord proclaims Himself as merciful. In Exodus 34, Moses stands in the cleft of the rock, exactly where the Lord told him to stand. “And the Lord passed by before him, and proclaimed, The Lord, The Lord God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abundant in goodness and truth” (Ex. 34:6). How grateful we are that the first word God uses here to describe Himself is merciful.

The Lord Himself lays down the rules as to how and to whom mercy is shown. The last thing any person wants to do is demand justice from God. We want mercy and compassion, but we must understand that none is due us, and the moment we think so is the moment we nullify these attributes. Romans 9:16 says, “So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.”

One receives mercy and compassion from God by admitting that he does not deserve any, but rather the very opposite. He does not present to God any of his so-called accomplishments or qualities. Remember the publican who Jesus said stood afar off and “would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner” (Luke 18:13).

In God’s dealings with man, He purposely chose grace as His vehicle of communication. Grace has to be a choice, or it is not grace. However, once grace was chosen, then mercy—a natural product of grace—became a guarantee.

Sometimes, believers feel they are not being treated fairly by the Lord when, in reality, if we received what we justly deserved, our situation would be far worse. Irrespective of our failures, His dealings with us are always with mercy and compassion, which means that we are not chastised as severely as we ought to be. David said, “He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities. For as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them who fear him” (Ps. 103:10-11).

The genesis of salvation is declared to be in two of God’s attributes, the first being mercy, or compassion. God has a tender yearning toward men who are brought to misery by their own sins. His mercy is immeasurable and endures forever:

- “It is of the LORD’s mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. They are new every morning: great is thy faithfulness” (Lam. 3:22-23).

- “Gracious is the LORD, and righteous; yea, our God is merciful.” (Ps. 116:5)

- “O give thanks unto the God of heaven: for his mercy endureth for ever” (Ps. 136:26).

- “But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us” (Eph. 2:4).

We have believers today demanding justice instead of asking for mercy. Why is that? None of us deserve the mercy of God, but all of us—from kings to blind beggars—need it.

Psalms 51 opens with David’s repentant plea: “Have mercy upon me, O God, according to thy lovingkindness: according unto the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions.”

Bible scholar Albert Barnes says of this verse: “Have mercy upon me, O God” is the utterance of a full heart; a heart crushed and broken by the consciousness of sin. The psalmist had been made to see his great guilt; and his first act is to cry out for mercy. The only hope of a sinner when crushed with the consciousness of sin is the mercy of God; and the plea for that mercy will be urged in the most earnest and impassioned language that the mind can employ.”

One of the most requested songs for my husband is Mercy Rewrote My Life. Part of the lyrics say this:

“We have believers today demanding justice instead of asking for mercy. Why is that? None of us deserve the mercy of God, but all of us—from kings to blind beggars—need it.”

*My mistakes that day, He turned into miracles,
My tears He turned into joy,
My past sins were forgiven, and a new name was written,
Mercy rewrote my life.*

*Mercy rewrote my life,
Mercy rewrote my life,
I could have fallen my soul cast way down,
But mercy rewrote my life.*

Mercy was central to the prophecy Zacharias utters in Luke 1 regarding the Messiah: “To perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant” (Luke 1:72). This proclaimed Jesus as the bearer of that mercy. Jesus is mercy, praise God! From that same passage: “Through the tender mercy of our God; whereby the dayspring from on high hath visited us” (Luke 1:78). This reveals that the sending of Jesus Christ, God’s only Son, was strictly an act of mercy, and tender mercy at that.

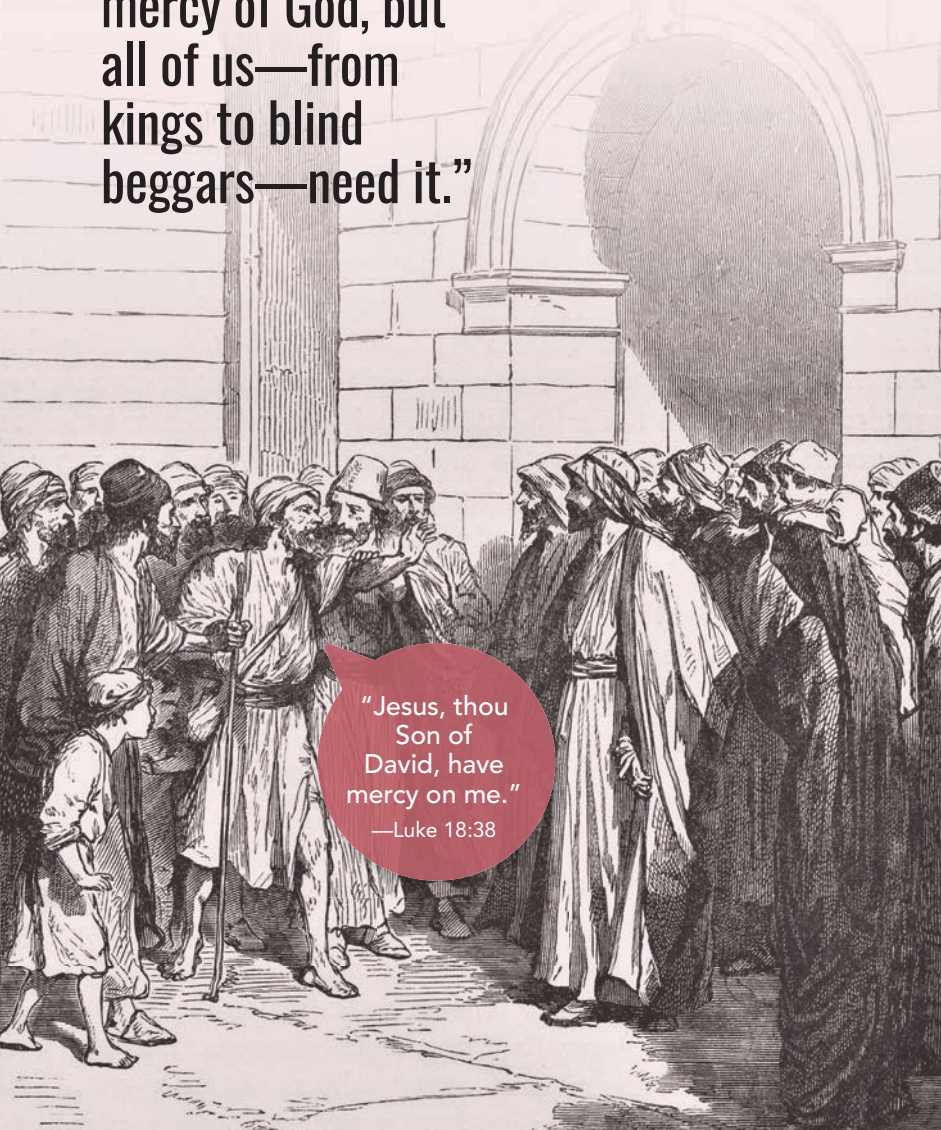

That’s why, when he heard that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by, blind Bartimaeus cried out, “Jesus, thou Son of David, have mercy on me” (Luke 18:38). He asked because he had heard that Jesus was merciful, and Bartimaeus knew that Christ placed no distinction between rich or poor, old or young, beautiful or beggar.

In Matthew 9:27, two blind men followed Jesus crying out after Him, “Thou Son of David, have mercy on us.” That simple statement—have mercy on us—is a request the Lord will always answer.

Men do not need justice, they need mercy. The writer of Hebrews tells us, “Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need” (Heb. 4:16). This means that God strongly desires to show mercy and grace to all who come to Him. As someone has said, “Mercy is God’s disposition toward sinful men, but love is His motive in all that He does for them.”

The mercy of God is really beyond our comprehension because it is new every morning, always before us, and also behind us, following the believer all the days of his life (Ps. 23:6). All we can do is praise Him and thank Him for it.

“I will sing of the mercies of the LORD for ever: with my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness to all generations” (Ps. 89:1). ✎

JIMMY SWAGGART BOOK SPECIALS

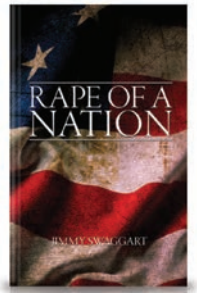

ELISHA (09-134)

Elijah first cast his mantle on Elisha as he plowed a field with 12 yoke of oxen — an indicator of God’s true calling. Years later, Elisha would pick up the same mantle that fell from the prophet who was suddenly taken to heaven in a whirlwind by a chariot and horses of fire—a sign that Elisha had received a double portion of God’s anointing. In this book, Brother Swaggart replays the miracles that God did throughout Elisha’s ministry: dividing the waters of Jordan, healing the poisoned waters of Jericho, and raising the dead son of the Shunammite woman. Believers are reminded that we serve a miracle-working God and that we should live—as Elisha did—in a state of expectation that cries out, “Where is the LORD God of Elijah?” (400 pages, hardcover)

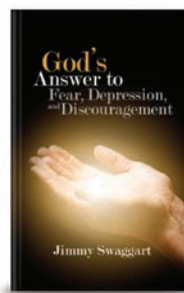

RAPE OF A NATION (09-131)

The very moral fabric of our nation is being torn by unseen forces at work around us. These malicious forces have names but no faces. But what are these unseen forces at work? What can we do to stop them? Until now these questions hung in the still air without reply. This powerful book by Evangelist Jimmy Swaggart lays bare the truth behind the terrible effect these unseen forces are having on our nation. It uncovers the root causes of these forces and what we can do to curb their malevolent influence. This is a book that every citizen of the United States should read, but perhaps more importantly, one that every Christian must read. It is a potent book that pulls no punches—one that is as uncompromising in its reach as the author himself. This book sounds a clarion call to awaken believers to the realization that the only answer for America is Jesus Christ and Him crucified. (Over 400 pages, hardcover)

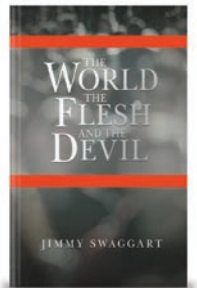

GOD’S ANSWER TO FEAR, DEPRESSION, AND DISCOURAGEMENT (09-133)

Since the fall, man has coped with fear and its siblings—depression and discouragement. In the garden of Eden, Adam and Eve fled from God and became afraid as soon as they were made aware of their nakedness—their sin. Bible scholars also think there is sound basis for believing that there is, in fact, a “spirit of fear.” It is a diabolical and demonic spirit, charged by Lucifer, which causes havoc, trouble, heartache, physical illness, and sometimes death—even for Christians. In this timely book by Jimmy Swaggart, the evangelist draws on 60 years of ministry and Bible study to present believers with the antidote for this fear, depression, and discouragement: conviction—grounded in a proper understanding of the cross—that God is for us and with us, always. (233 pages, hardcover)

THE WORLD, THE FLESH, AND THE DEVIL (09-130)

The three greatest antagonists to the child of God are the world, the flesh, and the Devil. Sadly, Christians try to fight these enemies on their own, only to experience continual discouragement and failure. In this compelling book, Evangelist Jimmy Swaggart illustrates how the Holy Spirit works—within the parameters of the finished work of Christ—to help the Christian maintain faith in the cross where Satan was thoroughly defeated. Using Old Testament types and shadows—the manna from heaven, the tree that made bitter waters sweet, and the smitten rock that poured forth water— Brother Swaggart reveals God’s plan to provide for and redeem mankind. The revelation offered in this book—that true victory belongs to Christ alone—will help every believer who learns to say, “yet not I.” (244 pages, hardcover)

THE TABERNACLE (09-125)

The Tabernacle was given by God to the children of Israel to serve as a pattern for living. Every single part of the Tabernacle — the way it was built, its coverings, its sacred vessels — all, and without exception, speak of Christ and His roles in the atonement for all sin, as the mediator for mankind, and as our intercessor. One might say that every single thing about the Tabernacle presents itself as a symbol of the work of our Lord. This thorough study of the Tabernacle will bring about a greater understanding to all believers about the Lord Jesus Christ and everything that has been fulfilled through Him. (Over 280 pages, hardcover)

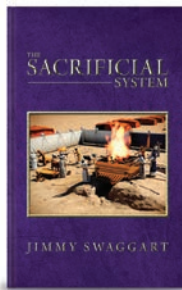

ELIJAH THE TISHBITE (09-128)

Little is known about Elijah, one of the greatest prophets who ever lived, and one of only two men who never died. Instead he was translated and carried up to heaven in a fiery chariot. Yet, before his miraculous departure, Elijah left something behind that every believer can learn from: A lifestyle of unshakable faith. From the time Elijah bursts onto the scene, we see his faith stop and start rain, his words warn unbelieving kings, and his prayers call down fire on false prophets—all with the Lord guiding his every move and his every word. So tangible was the Lord's anointing on Elijah's life and ministry that Elisha asked for a double portion of his spirit, which he received when he saw Elijah translated. Yet, the story of Elijah does not end in the Old Testament; the Lord will send him back to earth during the great tribulation to once again preach the gospel as the great prophet he was and is. (278 pages, hardcover)

THE SACRIFICIAL SYSTEM (09-126)

In the Old Testament, atonement was something that had to be done over and over again because the blood of animals could cover but could not take away sins of the people. The priest, while carrying out his sacred duties under the Mosaic law, was commanded to look not at the sinner but at the sacrifice. If the sacrifice was acceptable, then the believing sinner was also acceptable. Yet, the atonement effected in the Old Testament was in reality only a stopgap measure. The thousands of animal sacrifices offered then pointed to the coming Redeemer of mankind who would serve as the one true atonement: Jesus Christ and Him crucified. His sacrifice on the cross of Calvary would take away the sin of the whole world once and for all. (Over 350 pages, hardcover)

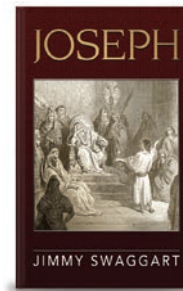

JACOB (09-123)

From his beginning, Jacob—one of two nations in Rebekah's womb—is found struggling. From birth we see the supplanter at work: grasping Esau's heel, bargaining with his brother for the birthright, and deceiving his father for the blessing of the firstborn. Cut off from his family, running from a murderous brother, and headed somewhere he knows nothing about, Jacob comes to the point of total dependency on God. We see him discover the same place that the Holy Spirit draws every believer—where human abilities and resources end and the power of God begins. In this anointed book by Brother Swaggart, we watch the wrestling, the wrong direction, and the revelation as God transforms Jacob from the deceiver he was to the patriarch he becomes—Israel, prince with God. (Over 360 pages, hardcover)

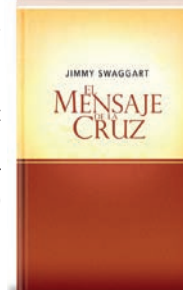

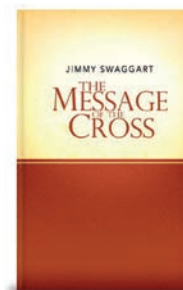

JOSEPH (09-124)

Joseph takes you back to the ancient history of Genesis; back to the beginning when God was raising up his chosen people through promises He made to the patriarchs—Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. This is the story of Jacob's son, Joseph, whose actions and reactions after being sold into slavery by his brothers mirror the compassion, grace, and love of the Master, the Lord Jesus. In these pages, you'll find the meaning of Joseph's coat of many colors, his God-given dreams and interpretations, and his miraculous journey from the pit of slavery to the palace of Egypt—all part of God's plan for his life. Every believer can learn from studying the life of Joseph, a type of Christ, who demonstrated to his own family true forgiveness, acceptance, and restoration. (Over 260 pages, hardcover)

THE MESSAGE OF THE CROSS

The message in this book is personal and addressed to every believer who has tried to live for God but failed. It was written for those who were told by elders to just try harder to overcome sin. It's for the people of God who trust their own abilities, strengths, and talents because they don't know how to trust God. Read this apostolic revelation from God to Brother Swaggart and how it changed his life and ministry. In these chapters, he shares God's prescribed order for victory through faith in Jesus Christ and Him crucified, which is the story of the Bible. Learn how the Holy Spirit works within the parameters of the finished work of Christ to help believers gain victory over the world, the flesh, and the Devil. (Over 250 pages, hardcover)

ARTICLE BY Donnie Swaggart

“Fear not, O land; be glad and rejoice: for the LORD will do great things. Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field: for the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth her fruit, the fig tree and the vine do yield their strength. Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month. And the floors shall be full of wheat, and the fats shall overflow with wine and oil. And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the cankerworm, and the caterpillar, and the palmerworm, my great army which I sent among you. And ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you: and my people shall never be ashamed. And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the LORD your God, and none else: and my people shall never be ashamed.” —JOEL 2:21-27

THE LORD WILL DO Great Things

MANY OF US were alarmed at the outcome of the 2020 U.S. presidential election and, as of this writing (Jan. 26, 2021), we all thought we would be free from the draconian lockdown measures. Alas, it appears that it will continue further into 2021. However, as believers, our focus should not be on COVID, Washington blunders, lockdowns, or businesses being partially open. Instead, we should look to the Lord, for the Lord can and will move on behalf of His children regardless of external circumstances.

The book of Joel is referred to by Pentecostals as the Holy Spirit book of the Old Testament. It was in this book that Joel spoke of the coming outpouring of the Holy Spirit, a prophecy Peter would quote on the day of Pentecost.

The name Joel means “Jehovah is God,” and that is something we should never forget. In times of crisis, like the ones we now face, it’s easy for some believers to forget that Jesus Christ is God, and He is in charge, not man.

The prophecy of Joel is undated; it is general. It covers the period of the “times of the Gentiles,” meaning from the time of Nebuchadnezzar to the time of the anti-Christ. The message was directed to Judah.

The prediction of the prophecy concerns the blessings that are to come upon God’s people during the coming kingdom age because it concerns the future. Too many Christians believe these blessings are unavailable now. But if the Holy Spirit allowed Peter to claim its promises on the day of Pentecost, then the Lord allows us to claim these great promises right now.

The church has a problem of looking to the past or to the future, but not the present. The church must always remember that we serve a “now” God. We have a better covenant based on better promises.

The book of Hebrews tells us:

1. Christ is better than the angels.
2. The new covenant contains a better hope.
3. Jesus is the mediator of a better covenant.
4. The new covenant is established upon better promises.
5. Our Lord offered a better sacrifice.
6. God has provided better things for us.
7. Jesus speaks better things than that of Abel.

So let’s look at what the Lord told Joel, and what He is telling us.

Fear Not

Satan may be powerful, but Jesus Christ is all powerful. He is the “I Am” of the “I Will,” and His Word is “fear not.” II Timothy 1:7 says: “God hath not given us a spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.” Multiple times in the Gospels we read the words of Christ to His disciples: “fear not.” Don’t let fear rule your life. Don’t let fear keep you in your house, afraid of a man-made health crisis.

Yes, bad things happen in the world, but don’t become a slave to the fears of what might happen.

Be Glad And Rejoice

Put on the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness. Isaiah 61:3 says: “To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness; the planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified.” Shake off those heavy bands, lift up holy hands and begin to be glad and rejoice in the Lord.

For The Lord Will Do Great Things

God can do great things for those who will believe Him and not allow fear to rule and reign. Believe God for big things. He is a big God, so ask big. In the midst of a hostile government and a man-made virus, God can and will still do great things.

Restoration

Then the “I Am” of the “I Will” said He would do this for us: “I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the cankerworm, and the caterpillar and the palmerworm.”

Harvest

“The floors shall be full of wheat.” This is used to symbolize the coming harvest of souls that will be brought into the kingdom. “The fats (vats) shall overflow with wine and oil.” This speaks of a superabundant flow of the Holy Spirit, which wine and oil are symbols of.

Plenty

“Ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied.” In Psalm 37:25, David said: “I have been young, and now am old; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging

“I have been young, and now am old; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread.” Psalm 37:25 bread.” Just make sure your steps are ordered by the Lord (Ps. 37:23). The Lord desires His children to have plenty and be satisfied. As said in Philippians 4:19: “But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus.”

“Ye shall ... praise the name of the LORD your God that hath dealt wondrously with you.”

We should be praising the Lord continuously, no matter what is happening in the world. “My people shall never be ashamed.” What a promise!

I Am In Your Midst’

“And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel” (put your city, state, or country in this spot, for God is where you are), “and that I am the LORD your God!” And what a good and great God He is.

The Lord will do great things for you. 🦋

The Fruit of Sin and Righteousness

“But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life.” —ROMANS 6:22

PART III

Holiness

Holiness is simply living a holy life; it is the total opposite of iniquity. This direction Paul gives is the same principle as before in previous verses, but now it's going in the opposite direction. Instead of iniquity leading to iniquity and dragging someone down, now, due to the cross of Christ, that person is going upward. I want you to understand that. Instead of going downward, which is where sin leads, you are now heading ever upward. Upward because of Christ. Upward because of the cross. Upward because of faith. As a result of this change, the power of the indwelling sin nature has been broken, and we no longer yield our members toward unrighteousness, but now we can yield them to righteousness unto holiness, and the only requirement is that we follow Christ.

Being A Servant Of God

Another aspect of living for the Lord is that the individual becomes a servant of God. I know that most would look at this term in a negative way, but when it comes to being a Christian, it becomes such a privilege to be known as a servant of God. The word servant speaks of being a slave, but not in a negative way. If you look in the Old Testament, when a slave was given his freedom but declined it to stay where he was, he did so for a specific reason. He did it because he loved his master who granted him protection, safety, and security. He was treated so well that he felt he would have more freedom serving his master than living outside of that particular home. To mark his decision to stay, such a servant would take an aul and pierce his ear, indicating his intention to remain there forever.

“Instead of going downward, which is where sin leads, you are now heading ever upward. Upward because of Christ. Upward because of the cross. Upward because of faith.”

How much better do we have it now? Paul said we have a better covenant based on better promises. We have protection, safety, and security in Christ. We will have more freedom living for Christ than not, and we do it because of His love for us and our love for Him. I would much rather be known as a servant of God than a servant of the Devil. As they say, our worst day serving the Lord is ten thousand times better than a lifetime with the Devil.

Being Made Free From Sin

This is something that we need to understand, and I speak of living a victorious life in Christ. Every believer has the potential to live this more abundant life, but so many fail to avail themselves of experiencing this more abundant life, and the reason is a lack of knowledge of the cross.

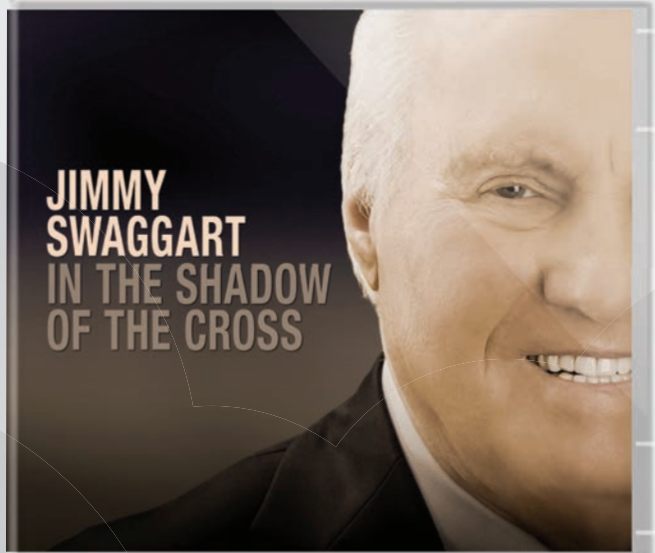

There is only one cure for the sinner and the saint—Christ and Him crucified. What He did for us was for the entirety of the world, for with His death on Calvary’s cross, the sin debt was removed. But thank the Lord that this great blessing did not stop there, for not only did it remove the sin debt for those would simply believe, but it also broke the grip of sin in the life of the believer. This means that if we look to the cross daily—place our faith in Christ and Him crucified—we can be continually made free from the sin nature. In Romans 6:14 Paul said, “sin shall not have dominion over you,” which means exactly what it says: you can be free now, and you can be made free, daily, from the grip of sin that has plagued your life. However, we can experience this only if we take advantage of God’s prescribed order of victory—the cross.

Everlasting Life

Living for the Lord will lead to everlasting life. Paul concluded Romans 6 by saying, “For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.” The answer for the sin problem in the world and in the church is the same—Jesus Christ and Him crucified. We must begin this salvation life at the cross, and we must never leave the cross because it brings life and life ever more abundant. ✎

U.S. OVER-THE-AIR (OTA), LISTINGS

For those of you who are not familiar with digital television, these are free "old fashioned TV channels" that are able to be picked up with a digital tuner and antenna. Most new televisions are equipped with built-in digital tuners or you can purchase a tuner from your local electronics store (Best Buy®, Radio Shack®, etc.). As well, you can purchase the proper antenna at your local electronics store. Many viewers under the broadcast signal of the television station can use a small, digital antenna inside the home. For those on the outer edge of the signal or to receive the best signal, an outdoor antenna may be required. Both indoor and outdoor antennas are available for less than $50!

EXPERIENCE THE DIFFERENCE!

We invite you to join us at Family Worship Center for Resurrection Campmeeting 2021, which includes a special dedication service of our newly renovated sanctuary. The new lighting, seating, and sound will make this event, we believe, our best yet.

So come and be with us in services designed for one purpose, and one purpose only: to portray, the best that we can, the King of kings and the Lord of lords—Jesus Christ—who is able to break every chain of bondage, lift men, women, and children above the shadows, and plant their feet on higher ground!

We pray God's richest blessings upon you and hope that you and yours can be with us in Baton Rouge for Resurrection Campmeeting 2021!

ESB Travels Around the World

“Three years ago, our neighbor’s son married a young lady from Thailand. He introduced her to us one day, telling us she was a new Christian. We felt impressed to give her The Expositor’s Study Bible. She said as soon as she learned how to read English, she would use it. Here it is three years later, and she sent me a text showing five of her friends in Thailand on Zoom having their Bible study using your Bible! She said they were so excited to understand the Scriptures! At the time I had no idea that not only her, but several others would be blessed with The Expositor’s Study Bible. God knew hungry souls were waiting for it! Isn’t it amazing how He works? Thank you, Brother Swaggart, for your diligence in creating The Expositor’s Study Bible!” —Email

Dear Evangelist Thank you so much for your provision of God’s truth. It is so needed at a time like this. I listen to your messages and worship much of the day and am so blessed, with much of the time with tears of joy and even conviction. Bless you so much from far off New Zealand. I most appreciate the honesty and the prophetic and the tongues, which are so openly shared and, may I say, displayed. For as a believer, they, too, are a gift from God. To all the team, from the top to the musicians and the choir, we thank you so very much. God bless each and every one of you. —New Zealand

We would love to hear from you! Email your comments to info@jsm.org.

“We were raised Roman Catholic, and you have no idea how many souls you are reaching! My family members are being saved because of your ministry, because of the true Word of God—no compromising!”

All letters are current and may have been edited for space.

Dear Evangelist I am most humbled to write to you, Brother Swaggart and family. I am almost fifty years old, and as a child, I watched you with my grandmother. I watched you throughout my adulthood, and I have a daughter who is twenty-seven who watches you often as well. The love, the spirit, and the true anointing that God has on your life and the lives of your family and staff is truly amazing. I recently ordered The Expositor's Study Bible, and it has been an amazing asset to my life. In 2017, I was diagnosed with cancer, since then I have written two books and formed a prayer ministry. There was a time that I would absolutely freeze when it came to speaking publicly, but God has given me a boldness and a zest to serve and reach His people. I enjoy sharing my cancer journey and speaking of the many manifestations that God has given through my journey (what the enemy meant for bad God turned around and used it for my good!). I am sold out for Christ. I just wanted to share with you how your ministry has been such an important part of who I am today. —Alabama

Dear Evangelist I just wanted to share these two bits of real appreciation from my friends, to show you how much we love your ministry. I am eighty-nine years old, and we all separated after leaving Zimbabwe (I am now in New Zealand), but nothing can separate our fellowship together in the Lord Jesus Christ. I have sent the Bible, both the New Testament and the full Expositor's Study Bible, and this is one appreciation:

“Thank you so very much for my beautiful Expositor's Study Bible. It's all I need! So much in it, I can study and understand so much more of God's truth, way and life, all because of Jesus and the cross where He suffered and died for each one of us. I will treasure this study Bible all of my life.”

That meant so much to me! Then I told my other dear friend about a message on strongholds from one Sunday, and she watched it and texted me:

“I've just listened to it. It was very good. Thank you for recommending it. It applies to each one of us. I made notes on my phone notes so that I can keep re-enforcing it. It was a good reminder of all the books you've sent me from Jimmy Swaggart Ministries. I love listening to him!”

She also watches A Study in the Word. I am going to send her a Classic Crusade DVD so she can understand all you have been to so many through these years. I think she will love that—I do! I hope this means just a little to you. The love and encouragement you share to us. May the Lord watch over you and keep you, make His face to shine upon you. You are very dear to millions of people. And a huge thank you! —New Zealand

Dear Evangelist Good morning, Sister Frances! My brothers and I have been watching SBN for the past five years. I never knew anything about the cross or Jesus Christ and Him crucified, and I am so grateful for your ministry! Every morning I watch on my cell phone The Message of the Cross with Brother Swaggart, and every service with all the associate pastors, and John and Josh in the mornings. I want to say my mother got saved because of your ministry. She was a devoted Roman Catholic all her life, and she was ninety years old when she went home to be with the Lord. We were raised Roman Catholic, and you have no idea how many souls you are reaching! My family members are being saved because of your ministry, because of the true Word of God—no compromising! —Email

Dear Evangelist I am writing to let you know how much I am enjoying Brother Swaggart's new CD, In The Shadow Of The Cross, particularly the song “Sometimes It Takes a Mountain.” The song is so powerful, so moving, and so heartfelt, and the anointing of the Holy Spirit is evident. Brother Swaggart sings it with such conviction, such feeling, and such emotion that can only come from a lifetime of close fellowship with the Lord. Thank you, Brother Swaggart, for your willingness to be used mightily through music that is empowered by the Holy Spirit to honor the Lord and to touch lives for His glory. I pray that God will continue to bless the ministry as you proclaim and lift up the name of Jesus Christ to a lost and dying world. —Pennsylvania

STORIES, SCRIPTURES AND THOUGHTS ABOUT HEAVEN

“Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father’s house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.” —JOHN 14:1-3

PART II

The spiritual atmosphere of the new heaven and the new earth will be awesome. Relationships among all the redeemed will be perfect. Never a squabble with anyone. Not even an angelic being. Scripture says there will not be marriage relationships, but we will have and show agape love to everyone (Matt. 22:30). The agape love you have for your spouse here on earth will be enlarged a thousand times for your spouse and for everyone you meet.

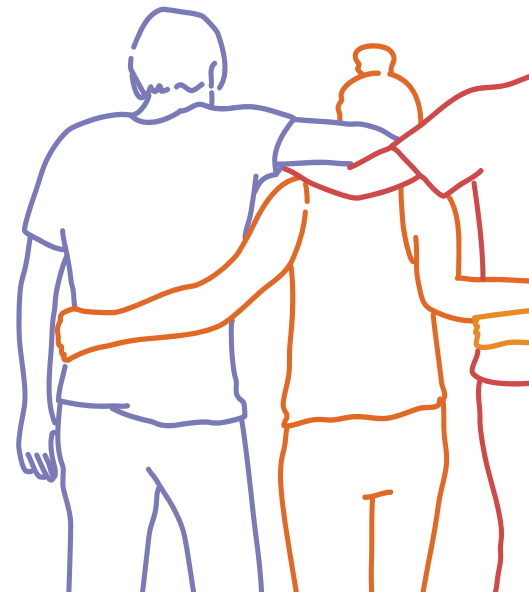

Our sin nature will be gone. The issues Saint Paul wrote about in Romans 6, 7, and 8 will be over. Sin and temptation will be behind us. By this time, Satan and his demonic followers will be in the lake of fire. The Tempter is removed. The sin nature is purged from our being. We won’t have to deal with Adam’s fall in the new heaven.

We will possess a divine nature—living, talking, and walking in perfect love, joy, peace, and true spiritual victory. Praise God, our sanctification will be complete. We will have glorified bodies, soul, and spirit. Paul wrote in I Corinthians 15:53, “For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.” Then we can shout, “O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?” (I Cor. 15:55). And this: “But thanks be to God who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ” (I Cor. 15:57).

What Paul wrote about here will happen at the moment of the rapture, as discussed in I Thessalonians 4:13-18, or at the resurrection set forth by Paul in I Corinthians 15:52. At that moment, we will be escorted into the third heaven with a divine nature with the total manifestations of the fruits of the Spirit described in Galatians 5: love, joy, peace, goodness, meekness, etc.

According to Revelation 21:4, there will be no tears in heaven. There will be no more death, neither sorrow, no pain. Think about it—no funerals, no COVID-19, no cancer. There will be no sickness in heaven, praise God! There will be no wars, no divorces, and no church splits. In heaven, there will be no wicked people around. Thank God, there will be no murderers, no abortionists, no child molesters, no liars, and no thieves in heaven. All relationships will be divine and perfect and loving. Everyone will get along.

The Population Of Heaven

Scripture is clear as to who will be in heaven and who will not be there. There will be three categories of persons in heaven:

- The divine trinity—Father, Son and Holy Spirit
- The holy angels of God
- The redeemed of all ages

Satan and his demons will not be in heaven but in the lake of fire.

If your name is not written in the Lamb's Book of Life, you won't be in heaven (Rev. 20:15, 21:27). You can be the most respected church member in your city and still not be admitted to heaven. You can give millions of dollars to the poor and still not be allowed in heaven. It is simple; Jesus, our Lord, said you must be born again (John 3:3). The Apostle Paul declared that you must believe and confess that Christ is Lord (Rom. 10:9-10). Saint Peter said on the day of Pentecost that you must repent (Acts 2:38). The occupants of heaven are blood-washed (I Cor. 6:11, Rev. 1:5, 7:14) and sanctified (I Cor. 1:2, 6:11, Heb. 10:10, Jude 1:1).

I hope to see my father and mother there. I hope to see my six sisters and seven brothers there. I hope to see hundreds, maybe thousands, of former church members and former students and ministerial colleagues and church leaders there. Friend, I hope you will be there. I really hope to see Enoch, Noah, Abraham, Joseph, Moses, Caleb, Samuel, David, Josiah, Elijah, Jeremiah, Paul, Peter, John, Barnabas, and Luke. I hope to visit with Gabriel, Michael, and many more angels. I am excited about attending the marriage supper of the Lamb. What an event that will be (Rev. 19:7-9).

Most of all, I want to see Jesus! Jesus, the lowly Nazarene, the Lamb of God, and now the King of kings. Wow, what a day, what a glorious day that will be! In Revelation 22:4, Scripture says that we will be able to see His face. Can you imagine what it will be like when you look into His eyes, to see the sparkle of His eyes, the glow upon His face, the smile upon His lips? I do want to feel the nail prints in His hands. I want to hear Him say, "Enter thou into the joy of thy Lord" (Matt. 25:21). At that moment, I may fall at His feet, jump for joy, or weep like a baby. I don't know, but it will be the greatest moment of my life. Esther L. Kerr Rusthoi wrote the song, "When We See Christ." The chorus says:

*It will be worth it all, when we see Jesus,
Life's trials will seem so small, when we see Christ.
One glimpse of His dear face, all sorrows will erase,
so bravely run the race, till we see Christ.*

The Activities Of Heaven

What will we do in heaven? Will heaven be like a giant theme park? The new Jerusalem will be ten thousand times larger. Some suggest they will sit by the River of Life and play the violin, but most don't know how to play a violin. I do believe that heaven will be a busy place.

In respect to activities in heaven, Scripture does refer to the judgment seat of Christ for all believers and the marriage supper of the Lamb. At some point in the endtime, after the rapture and before the descending of the new Jerusalem, there will be the judgment seat of Christ and the marriage supper of the Lamb. The apostle Paul writes in Romans 14:10 and II Corinthians 5:10 about the judgment seat of Christ.

Many scholars believe that this is the time and occasion when the church is held accountable for its deeds and labors. It is not where our sins are dealt with. This session has to do with Christ rewarding His church for their faithfulness. The marriage supper of the Lamb is mentioned twice in Revelation 19:7-9, before the second coming and the battle of Armageddon. These two events occur in heaven before the descending of the new Jerusalem.

In respect to the activities of heaven, I am persuaded that we will be privileged to do primarily five things:

1. We will be allowed plenty of time to fellowship with one another.
2. We will be involved in gigantic praise and worship experiences.
3. We will enjoy hearing the teaching of truth from the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
4. There will be times and sessions to hear testimonials from the redeemed of the Lord.
5. We may be given administrative assignments to serve others in the eternal age. ✨

SEASONS OF change

“To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven.” —ECCLESIASTES 3:1

The Truth About Seasons

Ecclesiastes tells us that there is a time for everything. One of the truths that the Bible declares is that as long as the earth exists, seasons will continue. These seasons are regarded as needful by God, and they accomplish certain things in nature that help provide for the earth's well-being.

It seems that human beings are often slated for a journey through different seasons as well. While many changes are hurtful, or seemingly so, the changes we experience can oftentimes lead us to something new, even something far better—something that God has set into motion for us.

If you find yourself in a season of change, or you recognize one of the seasons that I am about to describe, don't be alarmed. Hopefully, this little article will help you to recognize what God is doing. We must all be prepared mentally and spiritually to pass through seasons of change. We must consider that God just might alter life as we know it. The one thing that stands sure in this life is that all things change. It seems that God must move us out of the old before He can present to us something new.

The Season Of Summer

Summer is most people's favorite time of the year. Growing up, summer included a magical time of warmth, sun, swimming, water skiing, fishing, sleeping late, and long car rides to visit relatives. We spent time climbing in the mountains and staying up until the stars came out. The weather was absolutely marvelous. It was pleasantly warm. The trees stood in the height of their glory. The grass was a bright green and hay waved at you from the meadow. Summer is the season where everything is going your way. The job is what you want it to be. The children are behaving. The wife is satisfied. Summer is a significant season of joy and peace and rest and enjoyment. There is no one that does not deserve a summer season from time to time. As believers, we will find that only God can give a perfect summer season. If you are in a summer season of life, enjoy it. But recognize that it may not last forever.

The Season Of Fall

Fall is the season when we recognize that change is beginning to occur. The weather turns a little cooler. The leaves change color, drift to the ground, and are blown haphazardly about by chilly, gusting winds. In some sections of the country, fall puts on a colorful display in nature that is absolutely breathtaking. It all speaks of a change in progress; a time when the promise of change is whispered. Sometimes God will make us uncomfortable in the place where we had once experienced summer. We begin to see evidence of the signet seal of change around us; it is obvious. Here is when a little unrest may come into your heart. A bony hand of fear may reach into your innermost being and squeeze the previously contented spirit. The mind may become distracted by potential scenarios as you attempt to discern what lies ahead. While you cannot yet see the changes, you know they are on the way. They are coming. This is a fall season.

The Season Of Winter

Fall always transcends into winter. In different parts of the country, different things happen. But for most, wintertime is present when the leaves from the trees are all gone. The earth looks and feels bare. A chill wind whips through the forest unhindered by foliage. Animals scurry to the warmth of their dens or settle down for a winter's hibernation. When we experience a season of winter, it is a time of death. It is a time that features empty and cold. It is a time when nothing seems to be going right. In the fall we saw some evidence of change, but in winter it's a season in which things are eliminated. Have you ever had anything die when you least expected it? And time crawls slowly, lasting forever in the season of winter. We long to be warm again. We long to be whole again. We long to be ... in summer. At some point in time, the season of winter will come.

The Season Of Spring

The good news is that winter must finally yield to the coming spring. Springtime is when hope begins to rise within the heart and mind. Finally, we begin to see what God has been doing. The misery of winter's cold—the starkness, the emptiness, the doubt, the fear, and the uncertainty—begins to fade away. The green foliage of hope and prosperity break through the frozen ground, and the first spring flower exhibits its beauty. Birds come out of their “time out,” eliminating the memory of winter as they begin to sing a joyful song. The earth begins to warm, and nature begins to rejuvenate and reproduce, separating itself from its temporary prison of death and bareness. Deadness gives way to rising life. This life is brand-new. It is a renewal. It is a revival. There is a sense and feel of being refreshed and renewed. We will not always understand why God allows seasons to happen, but we must believe that God sees them as necessary.

Return To Summer

I know the seasons of our lives don't necessarily follow nature's seasons year by year. There is no certainty as to how long any individual person might find himself in any certain season. But of this I am overwhelmingly convinced: God is faithful, and if He has me in winter, then He has also prepared for me a moment in time for spring. Soon after spring will come the relief and reassurance of another summer.

Seasons exist in our lives because God sees something about our lives that needs to die in order to produce something new and life-giving, something beneficial for His kingdom and our lives. Make no mistake about it, life is seasonal. There won't be just one go-round of seasonal change. Change is sure to happen again and again and again. If we will but look to Christ and trust in His marvelous grace to supply us with what we need in every season, we will discover Him to be the ever faithful one. He is an ever merciful and kind God. Keep your eyes on Christ and, before you know it, you will once again be singing the songs of summer. ✚

“Make no mistake about it, life is seasonal. There won't be just one go-round of seasonal change.”

Hebraic ROOTS MOVEMENT

PART III

The most subtle, yet frightening issue of the Hebraic Roots Movement (HRM) is its attraction to Jewish mysticism. The lure they are using to attract Christians and newly converted Jews is sentimentally toward Israel and everything Jewish. Because Jewish and liberal Christian communities agree that the Bible canon can be perpetually interpreted they will accept a variety of interpretations as inspired.

Deception

The process of deception always leads one to look at self instead of God. The extra-biblical writings associated with HRM such as the Midrash and Talmud focus on the reader and his personal struggle to reach an acceptable moral application of the text. The reader becomes drawn to use his inner struggles and personal experience to interpret Scripture and, thereby, becomes susceptible to others defining Scripture by experience. Personal reflection replaces biblical text while mystical insight is given to unsuspecting believers.

More Deception

The HRM has different levels and depths of belief. Similar to the Word of Faith teachers, HRM teachers embrace different aspects of their movement for their own benefit. For example, there's a well-known ministry that has committed itself to being a friend of Israel. The efforts of Christians United For Israel are limited to political support and good deeds toward Jews. Evangelization of Jews is prohibited. In another popular ministry, the emphasis is on esoteric explanations of the Bible with Talmudic comprehension. Only the teacher has this deep insight.

The Zohar?

The HRM tries to define God through seeking a deeper meaning of creation. This prominent concept is derived from the Cabala (Kabbala) and its teachings of Jewish mysticism, which have gained acceptability and has aroused the curiosity of Hollywood stars. Cabala's roots can be found in Hellenistic (Greek) astral mysticism. Adherents, through meditation and the use of magic formulas, journey through and beyond the seven astral spheres; "the astral world takes on the form projected by man's consciousness."

According to the Zohar, the preeminent book of Cabala from which Rabbis are said to have developed from the Talmud, as documented in Webster's Secret Societies and also in the Jewish Encyclopedia, the "Mysteries of Wisdom" were imparted to Adam while he was still in the garden of Eden, in the form of a book delivered by the angel, Razael. From Adam, the book passed on to Seth, Enoch, Noah, and Abraham, with Moses receiving it for the first time on Mount Sinai. Then it was passed to the seventy elders, to David, Solomon, Ezra, Nehemiah, and then to the rabbis of the early Christian era, etc. It was viewed as only oral tradition until it was written down by the disciples of Simon ben Jochai.

The story of Simon ben Jochai is found in the Talmud. He and his son concealed themselves in a cave for twelve years and were sitting in sand up to their necks as they meditated on the sacred laws. Tradition says they were frequently visited by Elijah. The secrets were then written by Simon ben Jochai's son, Eliezer, and his secretary, Rabbi Abba.

New Age Teaching

According to the Zohar, God is the unknowable and immutable En Sof (Infinite). The Ten Sefirot (realms or planes) are the symbols of the inner life and processes of the Godhead in Zoharic theosophy; these are the foundations to the New Age movement as well—many paths to God. They are also believed to be the archetypes for everything in the world of creation, “understanding their workings can illuminate the inner workings of the cosmos and history.” Are you beginning to see the philosophical connections to the Word of Faith and New Age teachings and Jewish and Roman Catholic mysticism? It is also a big part of Islamic mysticism—Sufism.

False Prophets

Is there some hidden mystical or esoteric knowledge that is yet to be discovered that may be the catalyst to uniting all faiths? Is there something outside of historic Christianity and Judaism that could bring them into common ground with Islam?

Yes! To those who are deceived. And this is where the danger of the HRM and liberal Christianity is heading. Matthew 24:24 says, “For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.”

Islam

For example, according to Islamic tradition, the Mahdi will find lost portions of the Old Testament and New Testament. Some believe he may even find the ark of the covenant, and through these finds, he will argue with Christians and Jews, and win some over to Islam.

According to one Islamic scholar, Ka'b al-Ahbar, “He will be called Mahdi because he will guide to something hidden and will bring out Torah and gospel from a town called Antioch.” Another Muslim scholar says, “He will bring out volumes of the Torah to refute the Jews. At the hand of the Mahdi, the ark of the covenant will be brought forth from the lake of Tiberius and taken and placed in Jerusalem.” Other Muslim scholars mention the new inspired findings will come out of Syria. Is it possible that HRM adherents and liberal Christians may be susceptible to a future “new” discovery?

Test The Spirits

Although Solomon said, “there is nothing new under the sun,” mysticism has a unique uniting factor that can quietly deceive through similar experiences attained by devotees of all faiths.

The simple test for a false prophet is to apply I John 4:1-3: “Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world. Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God: And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world.”

The incarnation of our Lord was for the purpose of Him coming to the world to be Savior. He accomplished this through His death on the cross, alone! It is exclusively His redemption, and we can only participate by believing. Islam does not believe. Judaism does not believe. The Roman Catholic church does not believe because it adds their tradition, which makes the Word of God of none effect. Liberal Christianity no longer exclusively believes in the finished work of the cross. What do you believe? How you answer this question will determine your eternal destination. ✚

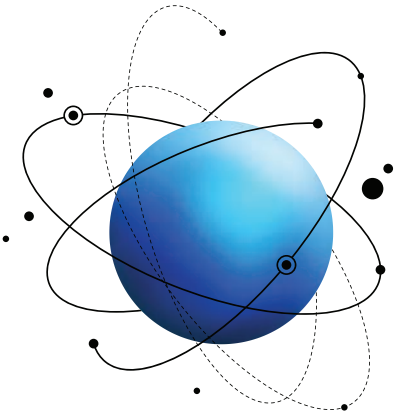

“Although Solomon said, ‘there is nothing new under the sun,’ mysticism has a unique uniting factor that can quietly deceive through similar experiences attained by devotees of all faiths.”

I BELIEVE IN NOTHING

Faith is essential for a proper relationship with God. Without faith, it is impossible to please God (Heb. 11:6). Jesus' own disciples, in the very midst of walking beside the Son of God, asked Him for more faith. Children of God have experienced miracles, been set free from sin, and grown in their relationship with God as a result of exercising their faith. Yet not everybody believes in God. No, there are those who have no desire to please God. Instead, they arrogantly proclaim, "I believe in nothing."

"There Is No Creator"

Atheists declare with prideful yet unsubstantiated confidence that there is no Creator. They would have us believe that everything came out of nothing—the stars, the planets, the sun, and the moon came out of nothing. They propose that our own Planet Earth did not come into existence as a result of a divine decree but evolved over a vast amount of time. For them, everything came out of nothing. They literally believe in nothing.

Do They Really Believe In Nothing?

No, of course not. It takes more faith to believe in evolution than it does in the biblical account of creation. They would have us believe that somehow, in the distant past, the spark of life was produced when there was an electrical reaction between two molecules that just happened to bump into each other in the vast distance of nothingness. From this came all that we see around us. The obvious question needs to be asked, Where did the first two molecules come from? Matter cannot be created in a vacuum. The first law of thermodynamics states that you can convert energy into matter, but even the best scientists cannot create something out of nothing. To convert energy, it must first exist in one form or another. The law of conservation of mass says, "Matter can change form through physical or chemical changes. The same amount of matter exists before and after the change—none is created or destroyed." That being the case, where did the first two molecules come from? It seems to me that it takes more faith to believe in evolution (de-illusion) than in a Creator.

"There Is No One To Help"

They proclaim that there is no one looking over us. There is no one you can turn to who can help you. If it is to happen, then you have to do it. When it comes to a higher power, they believe there is nothing or no one to place your faith in. Atheism sees man as the only and logical solution to man's problems. Humanistic psychology teaches that man will progressively improve until all of man's problems will be solved through man's efforts. We will then experience a man-made utopia. Really? So far, man's record is not good. The evidence shows that wickedness is on the increase. An apple left on the table for weeks does not improve but decays. Man cannot improve without God. He needs to be born again.

“They Are Without Excuse”

Paul addressed those who refused God in his day. “For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness; Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God hath shewed it unto them. For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse: Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools” (Rom 1:18-22).

“The obvious question needs to be asked, Where did the first two molecules come from? Matter cannot be created in a vacuum.”

The splendor of creation points to the existence of God. The inner voice of the Holy Spirit speaks to them of the existence of God. Yet they choose to reject the revelation of God. It's not that they don't believe there is a God, but they know if they admit there is a God, then they have to admit their need of God. They have to admit that their lifestyle goes contrary to the edicts of a holy God. Instead of embracing a loving God's solution to sin, they would rather embrace the sin itself. They would rather declare that they believe in nothing. ✎

“He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not. Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.” —ISAIAH 53:3-4

DEPRESSION FROM GUILT

PART IV

In previous articles, we covered how, spiritually, depression can be caused by hopelessness, lack of purpose, and grief. This article focuses on one more cause of depression: guilt.

Guilt is the fact of falling short of God’s standards because of sin (Rom. 3:23), and not just a feeling. In the Bible, there are three kinds of guilt: condemnation, conviction (godly sorrow), and the sorrow of the world, which is only being sorry about getting caught and having to face consequences (II Cor. 7:10).

Condemnation is not only deciding that someone is guilty of doing something wrong and deserves punishment, it also judges the motives of the heart and eternal destiny of a person, and imposes the sentence. Conviction, on the other hand, comes from God when the Holy Spirit reproves of sin, righteousness, and judgment (John 16:7-11).

The Bible says the following are some results of guilt:

- Fear of judgment, hiding, and blaming others (Gen. 3:7-13)
- Shame (Prov. 13:5)
- Distress, trouble, and a broken heart (Lam. 1:20)
- No rest or peace (Isa. 57:20)
- Confusion (Jer. 7:19)
- Physical, spiritual, and eternal death (Rom. 6:23)
- Envy, strife, and divisions (I Cor. 3:3)
- Grief (Ps. 31:10)
- Fear (Mic. 7:17)

One of the greatest descriptions of the physical and emotional results of guilt are found in Psalm 38:

- God’s hand (strength and power) presses me sore (Ps. 38:2).
- There is no soundness (wholeness or soundness) in my flesh. Neither is there any rest (peace, or tranquility in my bones) (Ps. 38:3).

• My sins are a burden (load, to be lifted, to carry or bear) too heavy (burdensome, multiplied) for me (Ps. 38:4).

• I am troubled (my mind is rent, twisted, disturbed, and distorted). I am greatly bowed down (caused to stoop, crouch, sink low, subdued, in humility, and servitude). I go mourning all the day long (with darkness, sadness, and gloom) (Ps. 38:6).

• I am feeble (stunned, paralyzed, astonished, and weakened). Sore broken (crushed, broken in pieces, contrite, humbled, weighed down by guilt, judgment). Roared (crying out) by disquietness of heart (agitation, threat of despairing of hope) (Ps. 38:8).

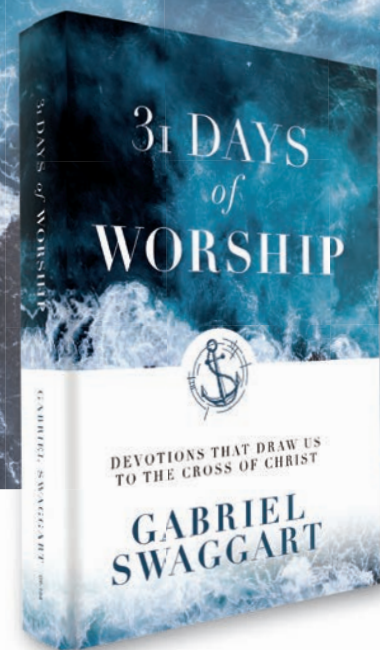

• Groaning (moaning, and sighing because of physical, spiritual, and mental despair) (Ps. 38:9).

• Heart panting (goes back and forth, wanders, and throbs). My strength (power) fails me (leaves, forsakes, and abandons because of being defeated resulting in sickness, leanness, and gauntness). Light of my eyes is gone from me (so I cannot see) (Ps. 38:10).

- My foot slips (is removed or falling causing to waver, wobble, instability, stumbling, and falling) (Ps. 38:16),
- I am ready to halt (to give up and quit). Sorrow (pain, suffering, and grief) is continually before me (Ps. 38:17).
- I will be sorry (uneasy, anxious, and fearful) for my sin (Ps. 38:18).

People do a lot of things to avoid guilt. They try to change or modify the Bible, blame their circumstances, or redefine sins as diseases or bad habits. These are attempts to either decrease or remove the need of dealing with problems as sin, but none of these are successful since there is only one answer and solution for sin. For the unsaved person, the only answer for guilt is to get saved, and for the believer, it is to repent and ask for forgiveness (I John 1:9). Both are possible only because of Jesus dying on the cross.

“In the Bible, there are three kinds of guilt: condemnation, conviction (godly sorrow), and the sorrow of the world, which is only being sorry about getting caught and having to face consequences (II Cor. 7:10).”

When a person gets saved by confessing and repenting of his sin, and through faith, receives Jesus Christ as his personal Savior and Lord, his sins are forgiven and guilt is removed. This means that the justice of God is satisfied for his sins because of Christ's death on the cross, he is at peace with God (Eph. 2:14-17, Col. 1:20-22), and reconciled to a right relationship with God (Rom. 5:10; II Cor. 5:18-19).

Not only is the penalty, or punishment, cancelled, but the sin, which is an offense to the holiness of God, is also removed. So both the sins (Ps. 78:38; 79:9; Lev. 5:18), and the sinner (Lev. 4:20) are atoned for. This is the only way that guilt, which can lead to depression, can be removed. ✚

FROM ME TO YOU

By Jimmy Swaggart

It Was Approximately Ten Years Ago...

IT WAS EARLY on a Sunday morning, just before daylight. I cannot honestly say if it was a vision or something that came to my mind, but I know that it was of the Lord.

In my spirit I saw the dreams that Pharaoh had and the interpretation that Joseph gave him as it regards what was coming upon the land of Egypt and really the entirety of the Middle East. In his first dream, Pharaoh saw seven fat cattle come up out of the river—sleek, healthy, vibrant cattle. Then he saw seven lean cattle come up and devour the fat cattle. In Pharaoh's second dream, he saw seven stalks of grain that were fat and vibrant. Then seven lean stalks came up and devoured the fat stalks as well. That represents the great tribulation, which is coming upon this earth in the not-too-distant future, and it will last for seven years.

The First Part

But it's the first part of the dreams that the Lord directed my attention to, and I speak of the seven years of harvest—the greatest that Egypt had ever known and would ever know. It was so great, in fact, that Joseph, who had been placed in charge, had to build granaries all over Egypt. It became so great, and I continue to speak of the harvest, that they quit counting. That's how great that it was.

The Harvest Of Souls

I believe the Lord spoke to my heart and stated that what He is going to do—and I continue to speak of the harvest of souls—will be the greatest that the world has ever known.

This Ministry

I also believe that the Lord spoke to me and stated that this ministry (Jimmy Swaggart Ministries) will play a great part in this harvest. And I want to say this—you are a part of this harvest. Never forget that. What you do to help us is not incidental, it is that which God has ordained. Let us say it again: you are called to this harvest just as much as I am.

Next month, I want to deal with what the Lord has already begun to do, so don't miss it!

In the Master's service, yours,

Jimmy Swaggart

Thank you

Thank you so very, very much for the well wishes extended to this evangelist regarding my eighty-sixth birthday. I thank you, and we give the Lord the praise and the glory for the health that He has given us, and the ministry He has given us above all.

AMAZING GRACE

An Autobiography By Jimmy Swaggart

In 1943, in the tiny town of Ferriday, Louisiana, at the age of eight, God called Jimmy Lee Swaggart for the purpose of world evangelism. But before God placed Jimmy Swaggart in front of the masses, He first raised him up to preach—on the streets of Louisiana, inside rural churches, into a radio mic, and, eventually, in front of a television camera. Today, the iconic evangelist preaches to the largest audience of his 62-year ministry—nearly 2 billion people—and his revelatory message is not only one of salvation, but also sanctification through Jesus Christ and Him crucified. In his own words and in his own way, Evangelist Jimmy Swaggart now tells his personal story of God's amazing grace.
