

Choice Christian greetings:

First of all, let me thank you so very much for the help that you have given us in the past, both prayerfully and financially as it regards world evangelism. To just say thank you seems so inadequate, but I know that what you have done and what you are doing is strictly for the Lord.

So very much rides on this letter each month that we send to you. It seems like, despite all that we can do, there is still a shortfall of more than a million dollars each month, and that's in addition to all of the overhead costs that we must meet. So, I am depending on you—if there is any way that you can—to respond, faithfully, to this letter.

You must understand that the work of God is never easy. Too many Christians think, erroneously, that if a specific work is truly of God, then there will never be problems, and there will never be a shortage of funds. I wish that were true, but it's not. In fact, it's quite the opposite. That which is of God will always be opposed by Satan. There will always be giants and walled cities and desert journeys. In the spiritual, it is a war—the forces of righteousness are opposed by the forces of Satan.

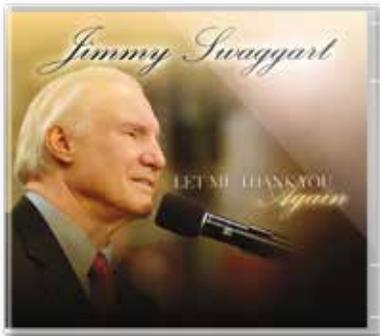

If one truly knows the Bible, then he also knows that God's work and God's people never have an easy path to walk. This is how the Lord works—the opposition that we face is allowed by the Lord so that we are forced to constantly seek Him, and we will have our faith challenged over and over.

It wasn't easy for Moses to lead the children of Israel out of Egyptian bondage. It wasn't easy for David to become king. And it wasn't easy for the apostle Paul to establish the truth of the new covenant.

In every one of these situations mentioned, we find that the Lord would raise up individuals who recognized what needed to be done to help the one whom the Lord had called.

The Lord has called me for world evangelism, and, as well, the Lord has called you to help in this great worldwide outreach.

For each of you who can give $100 or more, I want to give you a copy of my CD, Let Me Thank You Again, which includes these songs:

- Let Me Thank You Again
- Then Jesus Came
- Lord, I Need You
- The Old Rugged Cross Made The Difference
- Where No One Stands Alone
- Mercy Rewrote My Life
- I Know Who Holds Tomorrow
- Come Holy Spirit
- Let The Lower Lights Be Burning
- Do You Know My Jesus
- Born Again

There is nearly one and a half hours of praise and worship on this CD, which I guarantee will be a blessing to you.

We need your help, and I'm asking you, please, to pray about what you should do respecting this letter.

In the Master's service yours,

P.S. My word for you this month is: "Give unto the LORD, O ye kindreds of the people, give unto the LORD glory and strength. Give unto the LORD the glory due unto His name: bring an offering, and come into His courts" (Ps. 96:7-8).
