

Choice Christian greetings:

Everything we're able to do, whether here in the United States or internationally, it's all because of your prayers, your faith, and your financial support. This April marked the ninth anniversary of SonLife Broadcasting Network, and in those nine years, we have become the fastest-growing Christian network in the history of television. What took other television ministries twenty years to accomplish, we've done in nine, and it's not because of talent or charisma. It's because of the anointing of the Holy Spirit. The message of the cross is the message of mercy and grace. The message of the cross is the message of healing. The message of the cross is the message of the Holy Spirit. The message of the cross is the message of justification and sanctification. And God has raised up SBN to bring back to the church a reformation of Christ and Him crucified, and we give the Lord all of the praise and all of the glory.

At our recent Resurrection Campmeeting—and oh what a time we had in those services—Donnie told of his recent trip to Belfast, Northern Ireland. At his Friday night meeting there, a man came up to him with tears in his eyes. He said, “Seven years ago, my life was a mess. I didn’t know God. I lived a wicked life. One day I was just flipping across the channels, and I found SonLife Broadcasting Network. I didn’t know who Jimmy Swaggart was, and to be honest, I thought you all were crazy. But guess what? I watched it the next day. And the next day. And then finally one day, the Holy Spirit got a hold of me. I gave my heart to the Lord, I got baptized in the Holy Spirit, and my life has been changed forevermore.”

Another testimony from Ireland: a young man by the name of Michael drove all the way from Dublin to be in Donnie’s meetings. On the last night, Michael walked up to Donnie and handed him a note that read: “Brother Donnie, congratulations on nine years of SBN. I want to give you a profound and wholehearted thank you to your dad, yourself, Gabe, the associate pastors, and everyone involved. I owe my life to SBN and the message of the cross.

Coming up as a kid in church, I always heard people say, “I wish there was something I could do for the Lord.” And I can certainly understand that feeling. It’s one of the first things that happens to newly born-again individuals: they want to do something for the Lord Jesus Christ.

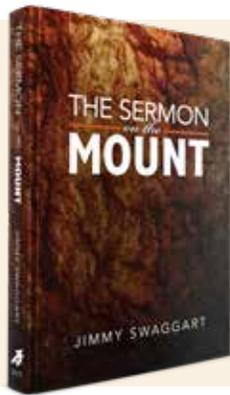

I heard a preacher say this once, and I’ve never forgotten it. He said, “About the only thing we can do for all the great things that God gives us, is just simply say, “Thank you.” That’s all. You can’t earn it. You certainly can’t merit such.

What we can do is respond to His command to go into all the world, and preach the gospel, which is why it’s such a privilege to support the work of God.

Many of you are so faithful; we can depend on you, and you never fail the work of God and how appreciative we are. And that includes those who give every single month as well as those who give larger gifts maybe once every three months. However it is that you choose to give, I’m so grateful for your help, and I have every confidence that we will be able to meet every need here at the ministry.

This month, if it’s at all possible for you to give $100 or more, I want to send you a copy of our book, The Sermon On The Mount, which is more than 300 pages. It will minister to your heart and life, that I guarantee.

INCIDENTALLY, WE HAD A SHORT FALL IN THE LAST SHARE-A-THON OF SOME 2 MILLION DOLLARS. CONSEQUENTLY, WE NEED YOUR HELP.

It is still the greatest sermon of all time. Imagine being there to hear the Lord Jesus Christ—the One who was with God in the beginning, who made the mountain where the multitudes gathered to listen to the Word made flesh. He opened His mouth and told them who was blessed and why, about salt and light, marriage and divorce. Instead of law, they heard grace, and love over hate. He warned against judging others, but encouraged them to ask, seek, and knock. With beautiful analogies of lilies, trees, and rock and sand, Jesus showed them how worry, false doctrine, and poor foundations would surely hinder their relationship with Him as Saviour and Lord. In this revelatory book, Evangelist Jimmy Swaggart leads his readers back to the mount where the Master laid the foundation of the new covenant and left His listeners—then and now—astonished.

Thank you for being used of the Lord as you are. May the Lord’s richest blessings rest upon you.

In the Master’s service, yours,

Jimmy Swaggart

P.S. My word for you this month is, “Behold, I have received commandment to bless: and he has blessed; and I cannot reverse it” (Num. 23:20).
