

Choice Christian greetings:

Spiritually speaking, it's midnight. But I believe the Lord has told me, "If you will keep believing and keep asking and keep seeking and keep knocking, I will arise and give you whatever is needed," and I believe He is going to do it. We're seeing touches of it now—what is happening is a miracle, and we give the Lord the praise and the glory. We dare not minimize what He's doing now, but He's going to do a lot more.

About ten years ago, the Lord began speaking to my heart about the dream given by the Lord to Pharaoh and interpreted by Joseph. The dream, as you might recall, came in two parts, as recorded in Genesis 41—abundant harvest followed by famine. It would be the biggest harvest Egypt had ever known in its history, and it didn't localize in a certain place; it was all over Egypt. Joseph had to build barns and shelters to contain all of the grain, and they couldn't build them fast enough.

“The seven good kine are seven years; and the seven good ears are seven years: the dream is one.” —GENESIS 41:26

The Lord revealed to me several things about the second part of that dream, including this: The seven healthy ears that came up on the stalk represent a move of God that is about to take place, which will result in hundreds of thousands, if not millions, being swept into the kingdom of God. In a sense, it is the same as the first dream, as far as the great harvest was concerned, which was the greatest Egypt had ever known. If I am correct in what I am saying, this, as well, will be the greatest harvest—not of grain, but of souls—that the world or the church has ever known.

Some hold to the notion that the church will see one more great revival, but I don't see revival; I see harvest. I think what the Lord is going to do now—it's a harvest, not necessarily a revival. Somebody asked, "How can you have a harvest without a revival?" Well, the Lord can. He can move on hearts and lives, and He can do it through this television programming very easily.

This signal of SonLife Broadcasting is going out over the entirety of the world, and that, I think, tells us that there will be a harvest greater than the world has ever known before.

The greatest harvest of souls that the church has ever witnessed or experienced is going to happen, and untold thousands are going to be baptized with the Holy Spirit. About four or five years ago, maybe a little longer, the Lord told me that we would see as many as ten thousand people filled with the Holy Spirit in a single service. Praise God.

It may be midnight—and it is—but that doesn't mean that God isn't about to move in a mighty way.

The harvest is coming, ladies and gentlemen, I believe that, which means we need laborers working shoulder to shoulder with us as never before.

Many of you are so faithful to help us each month with the monumental task of taking this gospel to the entirety of the world, and I'm so very grateful for that, more than I can say. There are others who tend to think that their gift would be so small that it wouldn't make a dent in our monthly obligations for television airtime and overhead expenses. But let me assure you, every gift, regardless of the amount, is a tremendous help to the work of God.

A good many of you are able to give a gift of $100 or more, and if that's you, then I want to send you a copy of the CD/DVD combo, Forgetting The Past And Looking Ahead, as a token of my sincere gratitude.

Your generosity is greatly appreciated not only by this ministry, but by the many souls who will hear, and keep hearing, the gospel of Jesus Christ. May the Lord's richest, richest blessings rest upon you.

In the Master's service, yours,

Jimmy Swaggart

P.S. My word for you this month is, "Truth shall spring out of the earth; and righteousness shall look down from heaven. Yea, the LORD shall give that which is good; and our land shall yield her increase. Righteousness shall go before him; and shall set us in the way of his steps" (Ps. 85:11-13).
