Most study Bibles have the Bible notes at the bottom of the page. Others have the notes on the side of the page, and some have the notes in the back of the book, etc. The Lord instructed Brother Swaggart to place the notes immediately following each Scripture, and, at times, even in the body of the Scripture, which makes it very easy to read and understand.

REVELATION 16:16

PART ONE

WE WILL DEAL WITH ISRAEL FIRST.

There is no evidence that anyone in the world at that time, even America, will stand up for Israel. In other words, they will more than likely be facing the most powerful army the world has ever known, and they will do so alone. There is no indication in the Bible, of which I am aware, that speaks of any nation in the world helping Israel at that time. It will be somewhat like the situation was at the outset of World War II. Ships loaded with tens of thousands of Jewish refugees sailed from Europe and tried to find harbor in New York City. President Roosevelt would not allow them to disembark. His reason: it might antagonize Herr Hitler. Some of the same ships went down to South America but again to no avail. They concluded their journey by going back to Europe, with most of those Jews gassed to death in the concentration camps.

Among other things, Hitler reasoned that no one cared if Jews lived or died, so he could take his freedom in slaughtering as many as he could find, and that's exactly what he did.

That's at least one of the reasons that America, and most other nations of the world, had a guilty conscience after World War II. America knew that she could have exerted some pressure on Hitler, which would have lessened the blow, but the upshot was, nothing was done.

Likewise, in the coming great tribulation, the greater majority, if not all the nations of the world, will have no desire to antagonize the Man of Sin. The evidence is that even those who will consider themselves to be neutral will not lift a hand to help Israel so as not to bring the wrath of the Antichrist upon their heads.

At that particular time, at least for the first few days, it will look as though the Antichrist is going to accomplish what Haman, Herod, and Hitler did not. It will look as though he is going to annihilate every Jew, which means a wholesale massacre. So, Israel will fight alone.

Despite being outnumbered by possibly hundreds to one, the great Prophet Zechariah did say the following:

“In that day shall the LORD defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and he that is feeble among them at that day shall be as David; and the house of David shall be as God, as the angel of the LORD before them” (Zech. 12:8).

The Anointing Of Power

The idea of all of this is, even though the army of Israel will no doubt be outnumbered greatly by the army of the Antichrist, still, the Lord

The Priceless Corner

We have set aside this corner of The Evangelist to show God's plan of salvation. If you are unsure where you will go when you die, please listen to what God has said in His Word:

1. GOD LOVES YOU!

"For God so loved the world, that he gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life" (John 3:16).

2. MAN IS A SINNER, AND SIN HAS SEPARATED HIM FROM GOD

"For there is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not" (Eccl. 7:20).

"For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God" (Rom. 3:23).

3. JESUS CHRIST IS THE ONLY REMEDY FOR SIN

"For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that He might bring us to God ..." (1 Peter 3:18).

"Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved" (Acts 4:12).

4. YOU MUST RECEIVE JESUS CHRIST AS YOUR PERSONAL LORD AND SAVIOR

Jesus calls this experience the new birth. He told Nicodemus: "Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God" (John 3:3).

We invite you now to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as your personal Savior. "But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His Name" (John 1:12).

WE BELIEVE:

- The Bible is the inspired and only infallible and authoritative written Word of God (Ps. 119; Matt. 4:4; Luke 24:27).
- There is one God, eternally existent in three persons: God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit (1 John 5:7).
- In the deity of our Lord Jesus Christ, in His virgin birth, in His sinless life, in His miracles, in His vicarious and atoning death, in His bodily resurrection, in His ascension to the right hand of the Father, in His personal future return to this earth in power and glory to rule a thousand years (Jn. 1:1-4; Eph. 2:13-18; Rev. 19-20).
- In the blessed hope—the rapture of the church at Christ's coming (1 Thess. 4:13-18).
- The only means of being cleansed from sin is through Repentance and faith in the precious blood of Christ (Rom. 5:1; Eph. 2:8-9, 13-18).
- Regeneration by the Holy Spirit is absolutely essential for personal salvation (John 3:5-8; Titus 3:5).
- The redemptive work of Christ on the cross provides healing of the human body in answer to believing prayer (Ex. 15:25-26; James 5:14-15; 1 Peter 2:24).
- The baptism with the Holy Spirit according to Acts 2:4 is given to believers who ask for it (Acts 2:4; 10:44-46; 19:1-7).
- In the sanctifying power of the Holy Spirit by Whose indwelling the Christian is enabled to live a holy life (Rom. 6:3-14; 8:1-2, 11).
- In the resurrection of both the saved and the lost: the one to everlasting life and the other to everlasting damnation (Rev. 20:5-6, 11-15).

PRAY THIS PRAYER AND MEAN IT WITH ALL OF YOUR HEART:

"Dear Lord Jesus, I now realize that I am a sinner. I accept the fact that You died for me on the rugged cross of Calvary. I now open my heart's door and receive You as Savior and Lord of my life. Please take full control of me and help me to be the kind of Christian You want me to be. Amen."

If you prayed this prayer in all sincerity, you are now a child of God. So that we might rejoice with you, we invite you to fill out this coupon and mail it to Jimmy Swaggart Ministries, P.O. Box 262550, Baton Rouge, LA 70826-2550. In Canada, mail to Jimmy Swaggart Ministries of Canada, P.O. Box 1020, Niagara Falls, Ontario, L2E 6V9. will make the Israeli soldiers as David of old, meaning that one will have the strength of ten or more men. The tribe of Judah will have the unexcelled power of God. But even though this supernatural ability given to the Jewish soldiers by the Lord will help greatly, that alone will not see them through because of the overwhelming superiority of the army of the Antichrist.

That which the Lord will do will be so very helpful, but it is not the main entrée. The main entrée will be the second coming of the Lord.

The Army Of The Antichrist

While the Bible gives us a few clues regarding what this army will be made of, I'm sure it only scratches the surface. Every nation conquered by the Antichrist will no doubt be forced to supply as many soldiers as the Man of Sin says are needed.

The Bible does give us a clue about some of those who will be with the Man of Sin.

The first one is Persia. This, of course, is Iran. Many people don't know that Iran isn't Arab but Persian. Its history goes back some twenty-five hundred years. The Iranians are now rabid haters of Israel; they swear her destruction time and time again. In fact, Israel, at this present time, is on the horns of a dilemma. They have the power to take out Iran, but it would entail the slaughter of tens of thousands of Iranians, which the world would not sanction.

At the same time, America, sadly and regrettably, is not doing anything about the proliferation of atomic power regarding Iran, which is working feverishly to develop its own atomic arsenal. Strangely enough, the surrounding Arab nations wish that Israel would do something simply because Iran hates them almost as much as they hate Israel.

Israel is attempting to slow down if not halt the atomic development in Iran. Israel is quickly finding herself with precious few friends. That's why when the Antichrist makes his debut and claims ability to solve the problem between Israel and the Muslims—and he will do so—it will be the greatest thing in the eyes of the world that has happened in the last several decades.

Israel also listed the following countries:

- Ethiopia. This is a small country located on the eastern side of the middle part of the continent of Africa. About all they could contribute to the army of the Antichrist would be soldiers, but of little consequence.

- Libya. This little country is in northern Africa and can supply precious little in the form of military help.

- Gomer. There is some small evidence that these people came from the Ukraine, which was a part of the Soviet Union when communism was in power. It now has its own sovereignty. Some have claimed that Gomer referred to Germany, but there is really no proof of that.

- Togarmah. Some think these people may have come from what is now Iraq, but again, that is only speculative.

If it is to be noticed, when the Bible mentions weapons of war, it mentions that which is indicative of that particular time, such as the sword, bucklers, and shields. However, that doesn't mean that this battle will be fought with weapons of antiquity. Far from it.

In fact, the Antichrist, no doubt, will have the finest weaponry in the world. But it is doubtful that he will have atomic bombs.

It should be obvious that if the sacred writers had used the names of modern weapons, Bible scholars for many centuries would have been deeply puzzled, not understanding at all what the names of the weapons would have meant. So, the weapons of that time were rightly listed. But make no mistake about it, the weapons that will be used in the coming great tribulation will be the very finest available.

The main entrée will be the second coming of the Lord.

At The Time Of The Battle Of Armageddon, What Part Will Muslims Play?

We have already alluded to the following but allow me to elaborate. While great promises will no doubt be made to the Muslims at the beginning of the great tribulation, the hour will come when the Man of Sin will set himself up as God. This will be at about the midpoint of the seven-year period. So the promises he will have made to the Muslims at the outset (if he does in fact make promises) will be completely ignored.

From the way Daniel describes the Antichrist, he cannot tolerate and will not tolerate any competing religion of any kind.

He will claim to be God, so that doesn't leave any room for competing religions such as Islam.

However, the age-old hatred of the Muslims against Israel will most definitely not change. So, even though he will not do for the Muslims what he will possibly promise to do, still, his hatred for Israel will be paramount. Quite possibly, they will take whatever they can get in the hope that it will destroy the ancient people.

It is my personal thought that this man will take over the entirety of the Middle East with all of its oil, which will shut out the Muslims. I also believe that he will do away with the worshipping spot of Mecca. At a point in time, realizing what he is doing, they will then try to salvage any place for themselves that they can get.

During that time, the religion of Islam plus all other religions will be no more, at least in the countries where he has control. So, after he finishes the countries "out of the east and out of the north," which could very well be Russia and China, he will then turn his attention to Israel. They will be the only people on the face of the earth of that time, of which we have any knowledge, who will oppose the Antichrist. 🦅

ARTICLE BY Frances Swaggart

“For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread: And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me. After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord’s death till he come.” —I CORINTHIANS 11:23-26

How Often Should I Take the Lord’s Supper?

In I Corinthians 11:25, the phrase, “as oft as ye drink it,” does not specify any exact times. It can be partaken daily, weekly, or as often as desired. It seems that early disciples observed it daily until they began to have weekly meetings, and then it was observed every Sunday. However, there is no scriptural set time. (Acts 2:42, 46; 20:7; I Cor. 10:17, 11:26, 16:2).

At Family Worship Center, we take communion the first Sunday of each month during our morning service.

Why Do We Take The Lord’s Supper?

Two ceremonies are essential for proper fellowship and communion with the Lord (but not for salvation) because they are divinely ordained—water baptism and the Lord’s Supper. Because of their sacred character, they are sometimes described as sacraments—literally, “sacred things” or “oaths consecrated by a sacred rite.” They are also referred to as ordinances because they are ceremonies ordained by the Lord Himself.

The Lord’s Supper or Holy Communion is an ordinance of the church. It may be defined as the distinctive rite of Christian worship, instituted by the Lord Jesus on the eve of His atoning death. It consists of a spiritual partaking of bread and grape juice, which, having been presented in memorial of Christ’s inexhaustible sacrifice, becomes a means of grace whereby we are inspired to increased faith and faithfulness toward Him. Some keynotes of this ordinance include:

- Commemoration. Jesus said, “This do in remembrance of me.” Every time a group of Christians gather to celebrate the Lord’s Supper, they are remembering, in a special manner, the atoning death of Christ, which freed them from their sins. Why do we remember His death above every event in His life? Because we are not saved by His life and teachings—divine as these are—but by His atoning sacrifice.

- Instruction. The Lord’s Supper is a sacred object lesson setting forth the two fundamentals of the gospel:

1. The incarnation. As we take the bread, we hear John the Apostle saying, “And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us” (John 1:14). We hear the Lord Himself declaring, “For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world” (John 6:33).

2. The atonement. The blessings included in the incarnation are imparted to us through the death of Christ. Bread and wine (grape juice) are in one way a picture of life, but in another way, a picture of death—the separation of body and life, the separation of flesh and blood. The bread tells us that the Bread of Life must be broken in death to be distributed among the spiritually hungry. The poured-out wine tells us that His blood, which is His life, must be shed in death, which it was, in order that its cleansing and quickening power may be supplied to needy souls.

• Inspiration. The elements, especially the grape juice, reminds us that by faith we may become partakers of Christ's nature and have "communion" with Him. As we partake of the bread and wine (grape juice) of the communion, we are reminded and assured that, by faith, we may truly receive His Spirit and reflect His character.

Communion Is Not Optional

Jesus said, "this do ye," which plainly tells us that taking communion is not optional; it is actually a command. Believers are to regularly eat and drink the Supper.

In I Corinthians 11:26, the phrase, "ye do shew the Lord's death till he come," is meant to proclaim not only the atoning sacrifice necessary for salvation, but also as an ongoing cause of continued victory in life. Calvary is not only for salvation, but for continued victory after salvation.

Communion Does Not Save

If a person thinks there is salvation in this ceremony—and millions do—then he is eating and drinking unworthily. Salvation comes by faith in what the Supper represents, namely Christ offering up Himself on the cross as a sacrifice for lost humanity.

For one to think or believe that the ceremony contains salvation within itself says, in effect, that Christ did not need to come from heaven to purchase man's redemption, but rather that this ceremony is sufficient for the task.

What Does 'Unworthily' Mean?

I Corinthians 11:27 says, "Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord."

The self-righteous are never fit to take the Lord's Supper, which regrettably, pertains to a large segment of the modern church. It is only those who know and feel their terrible state of personal unworthiness, with a total necessity of looking to Christ, who in fact, are worthy to approach the table. Their worthiness is in Christ, which is the only worthiness that God will recognize.

To not give the solemn respect and honor due this momentous occasion portrays a gross unworthiness. To treat it with disdain not only destroys its true meaning, but also places such a person in spiritual and physical jeopardy: "For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body" (I Corinthians 11:29).

If there is unconfessed, unrepentant, or known sin in a believer's life, this also constitutes gross unworthiness. Remember, the Lord's Supper is not a sacrifice, it is only a symbol of the sacrifice that has already been offered at Calvary's cross. Consequently, the act of engaging in this sacred occasion does not forgive or cleanse sin. Confession, forgiveness, and cleansing must come before the Table is approached, which can easily be done at any time. Consequently, there is no reason for any believer taking the Lord's Supper with unrepentant sin in his life.

While the Lord does not demand perfection for the Lord's Supper to be taken, He does demand faith in Christ and the cross, and that exclusively. Otherwise, sickness could occur, and the believer could die prematurely. While such a one's soul will not be lost, still, his service on earth could be cut short (I Cor. 11:27-30).

Symbolism Of The New Covenant

Believers should understand that the Lord's Supper is a symbolism of the cutting of the covenant, which took place at Calvary and portrays the new covenant that took the place of the old. The cutting of the covenant in Old Testament times meant the death of an innocent victim, with its body split in half. The two parties making the covenant would walk between the two halves, with the understanding that if either one broke the covenant, he would suffer the same fate as the sacrificed animal. Many times, a small amount of blood was also drawn from the finger of each participant, with cut finger touching cut finger, mixing the blood to say that both were now one. God made many covenants with man in Old Testament times, but all the covenants were broken by man because he never lived up to his part of the covenant.

But the new covenant, which the Lord's Supper portrays, cannot be broken because the new covenant, cannot fail; it was made in Jesus and Jesus alone, for He was both God and man. When Jesus died on the cross, "God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself" (II Cor. 5:19). Jesus was the representative man, and as such, He cut the covenant on our behalf, so it cannot fail, for "He abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself" (II Tim. 2:13). In effect, Jesus is both God and man, so He fulfills both parties. That means whenever the believer partakes of the Lord's Supper, he is celebrating the covenant that cannot fail. Praise God. ✎

JIMMY SWAGGART BOOK SPECIAL

The New Jerusalem

Consider the most renowned and wealthiest cities of the world, recognized for their ancient architecture, man-made landmarks, and impressive skylines. Yet as beautiful as they seem to be, every city on this planet is still polluted with the ruins of sin: heartache, death and dying, loneliness, murder, shame, and suffering. But there is coming a city whose builder and maker is God. John the Beloved saw a glimpse of the Holy City coming down from God out of heaven and described its beauty as a bride adorned for her husband. In this powerful book, Brother Swaggart leads his readers through the Scriptures to the promise of a New Jerusalem—1,500 miles high and just as wide—where God will dwell with His people and wipe away every tear from their eyes. (188 pages, hardcover) 09-143

Divine Healing

Does the Lord still heal the sick? If so, why doesn't He heal every person every time? And does it hinder a believer's faith to see doctors or take medicine? These and many other questions related to divine healing are answered in this illuminating book. Through testimonies of healings—his own, some he witnessed, and those found in Scripture—Evangelist Jimmy Swaggart reveals how the promises of God, perseverance, and properly placed faith operated in the lives of those who were miraculously healed by the power of God and heard those precious words, "Thy faith hath made thee whole." (224 pages, hardcover) 09-139

The Future Of Israel

Israel, the chosen people of God, is different than any other nation in the world, and the prosperity of all other nations hinges on these people. Spiritually speaking, she is far away from God, which is why Israel lives in constant peril. Despite that fact, God still has a plan for her, but what is that plan? In this revelatory book, Evangelist Jimmy Swaggart explores Israel's turbulent history with God, compares her to the modern church of today, and unfolds His plan to ultimately restore Israel, just as He promised, but not before she repents and accepts Christ as her Lord and Messiah. (214 pages, hardcover) 09-138

When I See The Blood

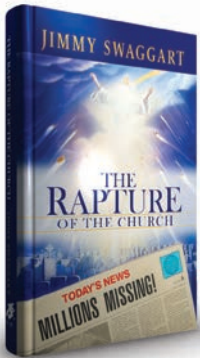

In Exodus, we find Moses before Pharaoh with this message from God: Let My people go. Pharaoh heard the word and saw God's mighty miracles, but his hardened heart would not obey. Deliverance of the children of Israel came when they applied the shed blood of the lamb—a type of Christ—to their doorposts. When the Lord saw the blood, He passed over them as He smote the Egyptians. In this powerful book,

Brother Swaggart takes his readers inside those houses where the blood was applied and where God's people—whether spiritually weak or spiritually strong—were all saved. The same is true today—when people place their faith in Christ and Him crucified, they are saved and every sin is washed away by the precious blood of the Lamb. (287 pages, hardcover) 09-132

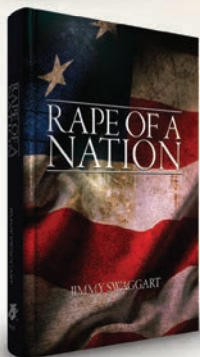

The Rapture Of The Church

When God speaks, His word always comes to pass, and according to the Bible, the next great event to take place is the rapture—also known as the resurrection—something the modern church knows little to nothing about. When will this great catching away take place? When the trump of God sounds, who exactly will be transformed, in the twinkling of an eye, to meet the Lord Jesus Christ in the air? And once the rapture takes place, what happens next? These and many other questions are answered in this riveting book by Evangelist Jimmy Swaggart who walks his readers through the Scriptures to explain this glorious event that will bring inexplicable joy to some while striking fear in the hearts of those left behind. (216 pages, hardcover) 09-135

God's Answer To Fear, Depression, And Discouragement

Since the fall, man has coped with fear and its siblings—depression and discouragement. In the garden of Eden, Adam and Eve fled from God and became afraid as soon as they were made aware of their nakedness—their sin. Bible scholars also think there is sound basis for believing that there is, in fact, a “spirit of fear.” It is a diabolical and demonic spirit, charged by Lucifer, which causes havoc, trouble, heartache, physical illness, and sometimes death—even for Christians. In this timely book by Jimmy Swaggart, the evangelist draws on 60 years of ministry and Bible study to present believers with the antidote for this fear, depression, and discouragement: conviction—grounded in a proper understanding of the cross—that God is for us and with us, always. (233 pages, hardcover) 09-133

Rape Of A Nation

The very moral fabric of our nation is being torn by unseen forces at work around us. These malicious forces have names but no faces. But what are these unseen forces at work? What can we do to stop them? Until now these questions hung in the still air without reply. This powerful book by Evangelist Jimmy Swaggart lays bare the truth behind the terrible effect these unseen forces are having on our nation. It uncovers the root causes of these forces and what we can do to curb their malevolent influence. This is a book that every citizen of the United States should read, but perhaps more importantly, one that every Christian must read. It is a potent book that pulls no punches—one that is as uncompromising in its reach as the author himself. This book sounds a clarion call to awaken believers to the realization that the only answer for America is Jesus Christ and Him crucified. (400 pages, hardcover) 09-131

The World, The Flesh, And The Devil

The three greatest antagonists to the child of God are the world, the flesh, and the Devil. Sadly, Christians try to fight these enemies on their own, only to experience continual discouragement and failure. In this compelling book, Evangelist Jimmy Swaggart illustrates how the Holy Spirit works—within the parameters of the finished work of Christ—to help the Christian maintain faith in the cross where Satan was thoroughly defeated. Using Old Testament types and shadows—the manna from heaven, the tree that made bitter waters sweet, and the smitten rock that poured forth water— Brother Swaggart reveals God's plan to provide for and redeem mankind. The revelation offered in this book—that true victory belongs to Christ alone—will help every believer who learns to say, “yet not I.” (244 pages, hardcover) 09-130

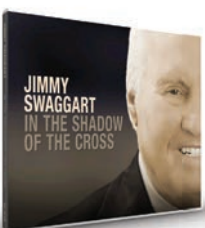

Elijah The Tishbite

Little is known about Elijah, one of the greatest prophets who ever lived, and one of only two men who never died. Instead he was translated and carried up to heaven in a fiery chariot. Yet, before his miraculous departure, Elijah left something behind that every believer can learn from: A lifestyle of unshakable faith. From the time Elijah bursts onto the scene, we see his faith stop and start rain, his words warn unbelieving kings, and his prayers call down fire on false prophets—all with the Lord guiding his every move and his every word. So tangible was the Lord's anointing on Elijah's life and ministry that Elisha asked for a double portion of his spirit, which he received when he saw Elijah translated. Yet, the story of Elijah does not end in the Old Testament; the Lord will send him back to earth during the great tribulation to once again preach the gospel as the great prophet he was and is. Remove Not the Ancient Landmark

“Remove not the ancient landmark, which thy fathers have set.” —PROVERBS 22:28

THE BOOK of Proverbs is the wisdom of God. Solomon, who was called the wisest man to ever live, wrote about three thousand proverbs. But more than two thousand of those proverbs are not included in the Bible as they were not inspired by the Holy Spirit.

The Hebrew word proverbs is from the verb that means “to rule” or “govern,” therefore, the book of wisdom is to rule and guide our hearts and our conduct.

Irish Bible scholar George Williams had this to say about the book of Proverbs: “The wisdom in this book is not human sagacity or cleverness or ability, but the application to the smallest details of human life of the wisdom which built the heavens and the earth and maintains them in beings. This is grace indeed that God should place His wisdom at the disposition of man in order to man’s happiness, and to his walking a safe road in the midst of confusion and evil and danger. The book contrasts the fear of Jehovah and the follow of self-will. The former is declared to be the foundation of wisdom, and prosperity; the latter is denounced as the cause of suffering and death. The book deals with God’s moral government in the earth, and its sure guide amidst life’s perplexities. It undertakes to lead men safely whether they be princes or peasants; and to direct them aright in all their concerns whether public or private.”

The literal meaning of Proverbs 22:28 concerns boundary markers that were set up to divide farming lands from owner to owner. The godly farmer was not to move the landmark and take up more of his neighbor’s land (i.e., honesty). However, there is a far greater spiritual meaning and that is what we are going to look at.

The Ancient Landmark

The true landmark is the Word of God. As the landmark of old marked the boundary of land and served as a guide, the Bible is the moral landmark that guides our path. The Bible is the landmark as it regards right and wrong. It is the roadmap that we are to follow in this journey of life.

The first thing we must look at is the state of our country. As I observe the condition of our country, it’s clear that you don’t have to be a sociologist to recognize that our nation has lost its way morally. Ungodly lifestyles are being pushed upon us as if they are normal, and anyone who disagrees is labeled a homophobe, bigot, hater, etc. If you say anything that could be construed as negative against transgenders, you are labeled mean-spirited, right-wing, or a religious nut. The Bible is considered a book of hate and preaching against sin is called hate speech. Christians are actually considered “terrorists” by some. Freedoms are being encroached upon, free speech is being attacked, and crime is exploding in some of our major cities.

The reason for all of this is very simple. Hosea 4:6 says, “My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge.” True knowledge is Bible knowledge. Where there is much Bible, there is much freedom; little Bible, little freedom; no Bible, no freedom.

Second, we must look at the state of the church. As the Word of God is being pushed out of the nation, sadly, the Bible is being removed from the church. Today, the modern church growth movement is saying:

- Pastors, to have a successful church, a large church, you must have a new approach.
- The things we once did are no longer applicable.
- Expository preaching is old-fashioned.
- You must incorporate the entertainment methods of the world. To reach people, you need to invite the ways of the world, the methods of the world. People are to be entertained, made to laugh, made to feel good about themselves.
- The church must not proclaim strong doctrinal stands.
- Sin is not to be talked about; it may offend people.

We no longer have shepherds. We have celebrity pastors, hipsters behind the pulpit who mouth pithy words but don't really say anything.

Where are the John the Baptists, the Philips, the Pauls of today? Sadly, they have been replaced by those say nothing, where we are today.

True shepherds have one job and that is to feed the sheep, which means preaching the Bible. People need to hear the Bible; they need to hear the doctrines of the Bible proclaimed. They need to hear about sin and its horrible effects, and they need to hear the only remedy for do nothing, and stand for nothing. People are coming to our churches and leaving unsaved, unconvicted, and unfilled—but they are entertained. They will laugh, but never weep.

C.H. Spurgeon, the famed British pastor of the Victorian period in England, preached a sermon titled, “Feeding Sheep or Amusing Goats,” a title that sums up sin, which is Christ and Him crucified—the theme of the Bible. If the Bible is not being preached, then all you are doing is amusing goats.

Our fathers in the faith have laid the foundation. It worked for them, and it will work for us today, so let's not remove the ancient landmarks “which your fathers have set.” ✚

ARTICLE BY Gabriel Swaggart

REBIRTH AND REBUILDING

As I write this, the Jimmy Swaggart Bible College class of 2022 has just graduated, and what a ceremony it was! This has been a phenomenal year at JSBC, and we are so proud of our students and all that they have accomplished both academically and spiritually. By the time this article prints and you read it, we will be in full preparation mode for the upcoming 2022-23 year.

IT'S HARD TO believe all that has happened these past five years. It was then that the Lord began to deal with me in prayer about the Bible college and what needed to be done for it to move it forward. Each morning in prayer, for a period of weeks, the Lord dealt with me, until finally I shared with my grandparents this burden that God had given me regarding the college. I didn't say I wanted to be a part of it. I didn't say I wanted to head it up. I just said that the Lord had given me a burden for it and that I thought we should restart the process of getting JSBC accredited. After much prayer, we all agreed to accreditation.

Now, as the president of JSBC, I am asked on a regular basis why, after all these years, do we want to go through the lengthy and arduous process of gaining accreditation for JSBC. I answer this question with four reasons:

1) We feel like it is the right thing to do and what God has instructed us to do.

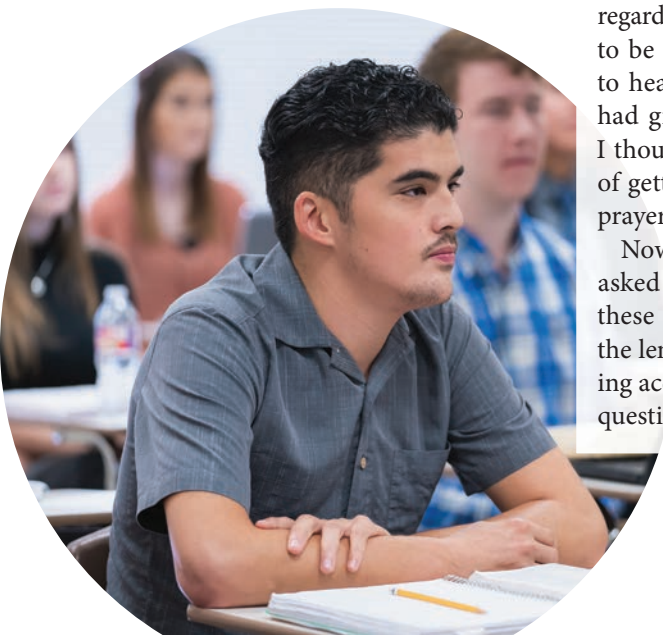

2) We want to provide our students with the best education possible.

3) We want a degree from JSBC to be valued by the student, by other institutions of higher learning, and by job recruiters.

4) We want college credits earned at JSBC to be transferrable to other institutions should students desire to complete or complement their education elsewhere.

Another question I get: Will the process of accreditation force you to compromise or change the beliefs that JSBC was founded on? Absolutely not. In fact, the vice president of the organization we're working with told our board of directors, "Seeking accreditation is not going to change who you are. We do not want to change who you are."

We want to assure everyone that accreditation is simply an official stamp of sorts that says we follow through on everything we claim as an institution for higher learning, have the proper resources to do so, and will meet our mission and objectives related to equipping students to fulfill their God-ordained roles in world evangelism.

We will never emphasize intellect over the moving, operation, and anointing of the Holy Spirit. We will be bedrock and steadfast in upholding our beliefs in salvation, sanctification, the inerrancy of Scripture, the infallibility of Scripture, the message of the cross, the baptism with the Holy Spirit with the evidence of speaking in other tongues, the pre-tribulation rapture, divine healing, the second coming—the very doctrines that are currently under attack in the theological world. Even in the Pentecostal world, people are questioning these foundational teachings. At JSBC, we are firm in our beliefs, and we are going to continue to teach and preach Christ and Him crucified and all of the benefits available to us because of the cross and what Jesus did at Calvary—that is the foundational message of this ministry and of Jimmy Swaggart Bible College.

Our faculty is a growing group of anointed men and women of God who are academically qualified and full of the Holy Spirit. The entire staff at JSBC is committed to preparing our students with everything they need so that when they graduate, they will be ready to evangelize, pastor, teach, or excel in the workforce of their choosing as so many of our alumni are.

The vision for JSBC in 1984 was to be so much more than an extension of Jimmy Swaggart Ministries. This college was established to be and still is a practical, Spirit-filled training ground for ministers in every walk of life. We believe that everyone is called to be in ministry—ministers who are filled with the fire of God and end-time harvest workers who will bring in this end-time harvest.

As a prospective student, you have the opportunity to be in on the ground floor of something incredible that is taking place right here and right now—the rebirth and rebuilding of what God is doing on this campus, and we want you to be a part of it. ✚

“Guilt is a reality, but so is forgiveness. In Jesus we find the perfect remedy for those tragic choices that have made us liable to judgment. In Jesus we have the promise that no one can bring any charge against those whom God has saved by their faith in and their acceptance of His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. LETTERS FROM THE AUDIENCE in Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

For details visit www.fwcfamilycamp.org

Dear Evangelist I have been following and listening to SBN since it was only available by internet. The message of the cross helped me to realize I needed to get my faith focused on the finished work of Christ. I was saved, attended church, played guitar in church, but I still battled a temper issue, social drinking, and pornography. But when I asked the Lord to help me refocus my faith, things began to change. Those strongholds are gone! I was able to attend campmeeting in April, and I purchased an Expositor's Study Bible and gave it to my new pastor. He is pastoring a Baptist church, and he told me today his new study Bible is like he had never seen. He is most appreciative. My granddaughter will receive a Crossfire Edition for her birthday very soon. —TEXAS

To purchase the ESB Crossfire Edition, (08-501) or any other Bible, visit our website at www.shopjsm.org.

“...I believed the prophetic word was for me, and help came the very next day! How awesome is our God that He encouraged me through a Christian brother on the other side of the world via your ministry!”

All letters are current and may have been edited for space.

Dear Evangelist To JSM, this letter is to let you know how far you've reached with your incredible broadcasting. I am an English teacher, and in December I was facing a difficult moment, and by chance I came across your TV channel on the Son-Life Broadcasting Network. I had prayed God to help me and give me a way to follow, and with watching The Message of the Cross, I found you! Since December, you have been my everyday company! Before, I watched a lot of American crime, but now you are my daily friends, along with Donnie and Gabriel's preaching, with Frances & Friends panel discussions, and with your beautiful music. I love Jimmy Swaggart, and it moves me when he cries, talking of the Lord. I am so happy to follow your morning service here in Italy. Praise to the Lord, and thanks for what you are constantly doing! —Italy

Dear Evangelist I just wanted to share a praise report of the Lord's healing power. A little over a week ago, a very close family member was diagnosed with a serious infection. I was devastated. However, the song by Brother Swaggart, "Where the Healing Waters Flow" came to mind. I played it from YouTube over and over. It brought great comfort and reassurance. Today, the test results came back, and everything is back to normal! Praise the Lord for His healing power and mercy! The healing waters have flowed! —Illinois

Dear Evangelist Hello, I've just been watching your broadcast here in Australia. The Message of the Cross is my favorite TV program! I have prayed the sinner's prayer and have given my life to Jesus Christ. I am saved! —Australia

Dear Evangelist Greetings brothers and sisters, I am not here to ask for anything but to thank God for you all! God bless you, Jimmy Swaggart, as I am watching your program now, hallelujah! Pastor Jimmy, my father was saved in 1983 watching you preach the good news of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ! My father was an alcoholic, and he found our Lord God through your ministry. Praise our Lord God in the highest for you and your ministry, and may God bless you. —Australia

Dear Evangelist Brother Swaggart, I was watching the beginning of your service when a man in the congregation burst forth with a loud and authoritative prophetic word in tongues (which gave me goose bumps) and which he then translated and said, "Stand firm, help is on its way. God has not forgotten you. Stand firm." I have no doubt that I was one person God intended that message to be heard by. Like so many, I have been despairing as to what is happening in the world, and in our families. And yet God doesn't want us to despair but to be victorious in Jesus Christ! I am constantly under attack and struggling with my workload without help. But on Sunday, I found myself sitting beside a young man in church who designs websites and is going to be able to assist me with the website I have; I've been struggling to find someone to help me manage it. I believed the prophetic word was for me, and help came the very next day! How awesome is our God that He encouraged me through a Christian brother on the other side of the world via your ministry! Thank you so much for being such a faithful and fruitful servant for God and our Lord Jesus Christ. I have been greatly encouraged. God bless you and yours always, and I look forward to meeting you in heaven. —Tasmania

Dear Evangelist Brother Swaggart, thank the Lord for all the wonderful broadcasts on SBN and for all the outreaches of JSM. You and all the ministers there and your guests are such a blessing and a help to people all over the world who listen. The presence of the Holy Spirit is in all that you send forth. Thank you for your dedication to obey the Lord. I thank the Lord for you all and for all of His great work through you, sending forth His truth at this needful time. Your wife's program truly is a godsend! The world needs to hear what her program gives forth. I love and pray for you all daily. It is my privilege to support this great work in any way I can. Praise our Lord! —Ohio

We would love to hear from you! Please email your comments to info@jism.org

THE GREAT DOCTRINES OF Healing, Miracles, Signs and Wonders

PART I

I was born into a large old-fashioned Pentecostal family in northeast Oklahoma that truly believed in divine healing. My dad was the pastor of our little Pentecostal church for most of my childhood and teen years.

Very often, the elders would take time in the church service to anoint sick people and intercede for them to be healed. I never questioned this practice and thought that all Christian denominations believed in divine healing. Dad and Mom would go to the hospital or do a home visit and pray for someone.

All of the children were born at home with the help of a midwife. When one of us kids got the measles, chicken pox, or whatever, Mom and Dad would simply pray for us, and then we waited for God to heal.

Our family always believed in divine healing through faith and fervent prayer. We believed that the miraculous healings described in the Old Testament, the Gospels, and the book of Acts were able to be repeated today.

In this article, I want to present to you Scriptures that encourage and strongly support the doctrine of divine healing, miracles, and signs and wonders.

Matthew 8:16-17: “When the even was come, they brought unto him many that were possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick. That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses.”

Exodus 15:26: “for I am the LORD that healeth thee.”

Psalms 34:18-19: “The LORD is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit. Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the LORD delivereth him out of them all.”

Psalms 103:2-3: “Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases.”

Psalms 107:20: “He sent his word, and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions.”

Psalms 147:3: “He healeth the broken in heart and bindeth up their wounds.”

Isaiah 38:5: “Go, and say to Hezekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will add unto thy days fifteen years.”

Isaiah 53:5: “But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement for our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.”

Matthew 10:1: “And when he had called unto him his twelve disciples, he gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease.”

Matthew 10:8: “Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: freely ye have received, freely give.”

Matthew 11:4-5: “Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and shew John again those things which ye do hear and see: the blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them.”

Mark 1:32, 34: “And at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils And he healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils: and suffered not the devils to speak, because they knew him.”

Mark 5:34: “And he said unto her, Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy plague.”

Mark 16:17-18: “And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.”

Mark 16:20: “And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen.”

Luke 4:18: “The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised.”

John 11:4: “When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.”

Acts 3:6-7: “Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none: but such as I have give I thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk. And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up: and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength.”

Acts 4:30: “By stretching forth thine hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done by the name of thy holy child Jesus.”

Acts 6:8: “And Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.”

Acts 10:38: “How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him.”

Acts 16:18: “And this did she many days. But Paul, being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And he came out the same hour.”

I Corinthians 12:4, 8-10: “Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit ... For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit; To another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit; To another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues.”

II Corinthians 12:12: “Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.”

James 5:14-16: “Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pay over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord: And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him. Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.”

I Peter 2:24: “Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed.”

Friends, I have presented these verses of Scripture to show beyond a doubt that our God healed and did miracles throughout the Old Testament era and throughout the New Testament era. There are recorded events of healings by Christ in the Gospels and stories of deliverance of demonic possession.

Several verses I have presented strongly encouraged His disciples to be active in the ministry of healing and deliverance. This call and anointing is available to the church today. Study Mark 16:15-20. The possibility of a ministry of healing, deliverance, and miracles is based on having real faith in the Word, in the power of the blood, in the power of the Spirit, and in the power of the name of Jesus. Be fully persuaded, God still heals today (Heb. 13:8). God’s Word strongly declares this truth.

Hebrews 4:16 says, “Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.” Surely this applies to anyone who is struggling with cancer, a broken heart, or in need of a miracle.

Our merciful Savior still heals sick bodies. He heals broken marriages. He heals broken lives. And God will hear the cry of a broken preacher who feels that his ministry is over. Start by coming back to the cross. The old hymn says:

*Kneel at the cross,
Christ will meet you there,
Come while He waits for you;
List to His voice,
Leave with Him your care
And begin life anew. ✝*

Part II of this article series will address the controversy over the continuation or the cessation of healings and miracles.

“Our merciful Savior still heals sick bodies. He heals broken marriages. He heals broken lives. And God will hear the cry of a broken preacher who feels that his ministry is over.”

ARTICLE BY Loren Larson

“So the wall was finished in the twenty and fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty and two days. And it came to pass, that when all our enemies heard thereof, and all the heathen that were about us saw these things, they were much cast down in their own eyes: for they perceived that this work was wrought of our God.”

—NEHEMIAH 6:15-16

Finish the Wall

The Area Of Responsibility

The work that God has called each of us to is extremely special. No one but you can finish the task that God has set before you. God intends for you to accomplish what He sent you to do. He may move you on to another task once this particular responsibility is accomplished. But until God specifically directs you to remove yourself from one place and moves you toward another, you must be careful not to be drawn away by the enemy.

In our text, Nehemiah was attacked in a variety of ways to hinder him from accomplishing what God had given him to do. As you read this article, ask yourself if you have been or are being attacked by any of these methods.

Distraction

In Nehemiah’s case, the greatest attempt of the enemy came just as he neared the completion of his task. The walls of Jerusalem had been rebuilt and joined together. Only the gates remained to be completed. When the enemy sees that you are about to finish a task or bring something to its highest potential, he will double his efforts to remove you from the work. Nehemiah was asked to step down from the work and meet with those who opposed him. Nehemiah’s response was classic: “I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down: why should the work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you?” (Neh. 6:3).

Distraction may come to the modern-day believer in a variety of ways. To distract simply means to divert one’s attention to a different object. Perhaps a new ministry opportunity has raised its head. One needs to be very careful when choosing to add a ministry to his present responsibilities. Another form of distraction might come in the form of discouragement. We become weary in well doing. The Bible exhorts us not to become weary in well doing for in due season we will reap if we faint not (Gal. 6:9).

At times, personal pleasure or worldly inclinations may pull us off the wall that God has designed for us to labor upon.

Personal gain or wrong relationships may serve as distractions as well.

The truth is, the enemy simply desires to do you mischief. The enemy desires to hurt the work of God that you are doing. Therefore, avoid distraction and finish the wall. You are doing a great work. Why should the work cease for any reason other than a direct command of God? Finish the wall!

Attack Against The Character Of The Worker

A second effort of the enemy to remove the individual from the work is a direct attack against the character of the person performing the task. In Nehemiah's situation, he was accused of having a wrong motivation for building the wall. His enemies said he was trying to build a kingdom for himself, that he intended to be declared king once the wall was finished. His enemies threatened to give proof of these false statements to Artaxerxes the king, who had given Nehemiah the permission and resources to do the work. This was intimidation by fear through the impugning of one's character.

I doubt there has ever been anything done for God that the enemy did not use this tactic to try and shut it down. This is why the believer needs to be very careful that there can be no charge against his character. I know that none of us are perfect, but there are decisions we sometimes make regarding our lifestyles that can come back and haunt us later. Be aware that the enemy will use anything to shut you down. Don't give him the opportunity by acting unwisely.

Nehemiah recognized the efforts of the enemy and declared them as lies. He said there were no such things done that his enemies were proclaiming. He refused to be dominated by fear. Nehemiah stayed on the wall.

False Words From False Brethren

Finally, we find that Nehemiah had to deal with false words from false brethren. One word came to him that an assassination attempt was going to be made against him. The suggestion was made that he withdraw from the wall to take refuge in the temple. This was given to Nehemiah in the form of a prophecy or a word from God.

When it comes to the work that God has for you to do, no one is able to tell you God's instructions better than God Himself. You must be secure in your ability to hear from God and secure in the knowledge that what you are doing is of the Lord. This will cement your feet in the location and to the task that God has given you to do. It will also provide you with a sense of discernment by which to recognize that which is not from the Lord.

Nehemiah discerned that this false word came from a false brother. Several others who had been hired by the enemy tried to use similar religious gifts as a means of removing Nehemiah from his task.

Using the discernment provided through the indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit and the Word of God, we must ever find the mind of God regarding our work for Him and let nothing stop us from its completion.

God can certainly move people on to different areas and different tasks. But be sure that before you leave you have finished all that God has intended for you to finish.

Remember, the call to leave must be stronger than the call you received to begin the work.

Don't give up on what God has given you to do—finish the wall! Nehemiah finished the wall, and his enemies were ashamed. They were acutely aware that God had helped him accomplish the task.

Despite all, finish the wall! 🚧

Be aware that the enemy will use anything to shut you down.

CULTURAL REVOLUTION

Global Reset

The plans for a global reset are being discussed at various international forums, particularly the World Economic Forum (WEF), founded by Klaus Schwab. WEF participants include world leaders, company corporate leaders, entertainment stars, and religious leaders of all faiths.

PART XI

Capitalism And Stakeholder Capitalism

The Great Reset is about getting rid of free market capitalism and replacing it with sustainable development and stakeholder capitalism.

Schwab's book, Stakeholder Capitalism: A Global Economy that Works for Progress, People, and Planet describes the differences between capitalism and stakeholder capitalism.

Schwab believes shareholder capitalism and state capitalism (communism) are the prevailing economic systems, but stakeholder capitalism offers a new, better system. He admits to and credits both systems of capitalism and state capitalism with creating economic progress and prosperity.

However, the prosperity it created did not mutually benefit everyone. Instead, the tremendous prosperity they created led to inequalities of income, wealth, and opportunity; increased tensions between the haves and the have-nots, and, above all, a mass degradation of the environment.

In a brief summation of these three economic structures, it must be noted that each has a different objective:

- State capitalism—communism—has the government as the key shareholder. The government steers the economy and can intervene whenever and wherever it feels necessary. Business and individual interests are subsidiary to the state interests.

- Shareholder capitalism has its company shareholders' interests to please as its priority. The primary responsibility of the business is to increase profits for the shareholders.

- Stakeholder capitalism seeks to benefit all stakeholders with society's goal to increase the well-being of people and the planet as its priority. Its focus is on long-term value creation using environmental, social, and governance (ESG), concepts of social justice as its priority.

Stakeholder Capitalism

Globalists will boast that this is an enhanced form of capitalism. Therefore, individuals who are globalists at heart can boast of being capitalists when discussing the economy, climate change, inequality, inequity, you name it.

Stakeholder capitalism seeks to create and maintain a sustainable economic system. Individuals and companies must be able to innovate and compete in order to release creative energy and work ethic of most people in society, they claim. Where this new form of capitalism differs most is the need for individual citizens and business actors to be guided, to ensure the overall direction of economic development is beneficial to society and no actor can free ride on the efforts of others, they claim.

Stakeholder capitalism also boasts how it overcomes the shortcomings of the other economic systems, e.g., all those who have a stake in the economy can influence decision-making, and the metrics optimized in economic activities to benefit broader society.

This all sounds well and dandy, but just how do the globalists plan to implement this new economy throughout the world? How will everyone cooperate and build on this new society?

You guessed it, it will be a global oligarchy of leaders that will cooperate together and form a centralized governing body. Of course it will have all stakeholder interests at heart; sadly, they will be their hands. It will resemble fascism.

Digital Currency And Control

How can a centralized government possibly control every aspect of society and supply equity and equality to everyone? It will take immense monitoring and obedience to achieve this kind of system.

The development of alternative currencies has been in the making for some time now. Major universities are working in the United States with the government to create a digital currency. Already used successfully in the private sector for transactions are alternative cryptocurrencies, Bitcoin being the most popular.

Let's look more particularly as to what may happen in the future to initiate a new world economic order.

As a brief aside, I do not know how far this will get before the coming of the Lord. Notwithstanding, a new digital currency and the age of technocracy are here.

Zbigniew Brzezinski, one of the founders of the Trilateral Commission in 1973, wrote extensively about technocracy. He said, "The technotronic era involves the gradual appearance of a more controlled society. Such a society would be dominated by an elite, unrestrained by traditional values. Soon it will be possible to assert almost continuous surveillance over every citizen and maintain up-to-date complete files containing even the most personal information about the citizen. These files will be subject to instantaneous retrieval by the authorities."¹

To accomplish such creation and maintenance, a high level of control in this new stakeholder economy could be done through the use of a digital currency.

The Great Reset is a new "social contract" that ties every person to it through an electronic ID linked to your bank account, health records, and a social credit ID that will end up dictating every facet of your life.

China has a "social credit" system in place that may act as a prototype of how to implement stakeholder capitalism globally. It permits the private ownership of property and some aspects of individuality, but it is highly regulated and inflexible on issues that find criticism of the government and its policies.

The initiation of digital currency in this framework enables businesses and individuals to function as a society. Initiating this new economy on a national or global basis requires the exchange of existing currency into digital currency. Rather than a bank or checking account, businesses and individuals would have a digital wallet.

In the 1930s, it became illegal to own gold bullion. Everyone was required by law to exchange their gold bullion for Federal Reserve notes—paper money. Initially, Federal Reserve notes were backed by gold, but later that was changed when the gold standard was abolished.

The devaluing of the new paper currency through inflation was one of the consequences of the exchange. A dollar today buys far less than a dollar in the past. Inflation is the hidden tax we pay for excessive government spending.

Meanwhile, penalties were created for anyone who broke the law for not exchanging their gold bullion for Federal Reserve notes. Today, modern technology makes the exchange potentially seamless by coordination with banks and investment banks.

The question is, how will the exchange rates work? Would everyone get a dollar-to-dollar exchange? Or would wealthy individuals only get sixty cents on each dollar? Would someone with less wealth get $1.20 to the dollar to compensate for an equitable distribution?

We already have a graduated income tax schedule, so why wouldn't they exploit the so-called wealthy to "pay their fair share" in an exchange?

Once the exchanges are made, prices of investment securities and fixed income investments, real estate, and art would all be repriced to the new exchange rates.

Instead of bank deposits, this could be handled through a central bank. No surprise here, we already have such a creature—the Federal Reserve System. Most industrialized nations of the world also have a central banking system. The government could then control how much allowance you can spend on fuel, food, health care, entertainment, etc. The list goes on as to the government controlling every facet of life.

The globalists will not succeed in their plans! Look up, for your redemption draws nigh! ✚

WE LIVE IN TROUBLING TIMES. Times that prophets of old warned about. Times that Jesus taught His disciples about. Wickedness is increasing and righteousness is decreasing. All the while, souls hang in the balance. Lives are being destroyed. The question must be asked of pastors and the people of God, “Where are the tears?”

Where Are the Tears?

Tears, Tears, Tears

In that day, there was no shortage of tears. Father’s wept as they could not farm the land. Lean crops that somehow persevered in the midst of an ongoing drought were ravaged by swarms of locusts. Mothers wept, unable to properly care for the children God had given them. Yet these tears did not move the heart of God. Something needed to be done.

A Time Of Calamities

Joel, a prophet sent to Judah, recorded a time when God’s people experienced calamities one after another. They had strayed far from the God they had been in covenant relationship with. Wickedness prevailed as they forsook the ways of God. Consequently, drought, famine, and the invasion of armies of locusts came upon the land. Israel no longer resembled a land flowing with milk and honey.

A Solemn Assembly

Joel called the priests to stand in the gap: “Gird yourselves, and lament, ye priests: howl, ye ministers of the altar: come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God” (Joel 1:13). It was time for the priests to blow a trumpet in Zion. It was time for a fast. It was time for a solemn assembly. It was time for the ministers of that day to cry unto the Lord. The day of the Lord was at hand.

They Wept Between The Porch And The Altar

The priests, the ministers of the Lord, wept between the porch and the brazen altar. Tears flowed as they interceded on behalf of a wayward nation. They cried unto the Lord for mercy. They petitioned God to not allow the heathen to rule over His heritage. They stood between where the people stood (the porch) and where the sacrifices were made to God (the altar).

Tears Of Repentance

The multitudes saw and heard the priests pleading to God on their behalf. Moved by their example, they joined in with tears of repentance. No longer was their focus on the devastation that sin had produced, instead they turned their focus to the mercy seat of God. Their tears were not for what was occurring in the land but as a result of the ministry of God's Holy Spirit. Their tears touched the heart of God, which resulted in the locusts being blown into the sea.

“It’s a time for the church to stand between a lost multitude and the only One who could make a difference.”

Where Are The Tears Today?

Where are the tears today? I’m not referring to tears naturally flowing because of loss due to pandemics, economic misfortunes, or even loss of life. I’m talking about tears that should be flowing as leaders stand between the porch and the altar. Where are the tears? It is not a time to put a positive spin on the events that are transpiring. It’s a time to lay prostrate before God and intercede for this nation. It’s a time for the church to stand between a lost multitude and the only One who could make a difference. The altar of that day is no more. The brazen altar, however, represented Calvary where the Lamb of God was offered for the sins of mankind.

We must ever look to the Christ of the cross who overcame sin, death, and the grave and now is seated at the right hand of the Father. We must intercede for this nation, for souls who are lost, and for saints who are struggling. Let the righteous tears flow as we seek God for His love, mercy, and grace. Let us weep between the porch and the altar. ✚

NEW DVD BY GABRIEL SWAGGART!

The centurion, thinking himself unworthy asked the Lord—with faith that made Christ marvel—to say the word only, and his servant would be healed. In this moving message, Pastor Gabriel Swaggart reminds believers that regardless of how serious their needs are, physically or spiritually, Jesus Christ is able to meet those needs because with God, all things are possible when we believe.

ARTICLE BY Dr. Dave Watts

If you do a search on bivocational ministry, you will find a lot of great articles that address the demands and benefits of bivocational ministry—why it matters, what pitfalls to avoid, etc. All of these are great articles written by great pastors or church leaders. For this article, we define bivocational ministry as a pastor who holds a full-time or part-time secular job to support his ministry.

Three Imperatives of Bivocational Ministry

I WANT TO address some of the experiences and wisdom I have gained in serving as a bivocational pastor in two church revitalizations. It is my belief that in some cases, a church may need to be closed and a new church planted, but not in all cases. I believe that some churches just need someone willing to work a secular job and invest some time in the church. By working with its existing board and leaders who have put their blood, sweat, and tears into the church in years past, I believe a pastor can see great success.

These are three imperatives that I believe are essential for bivocational ministry.

1. Effective Time Management

This is not an area where I serve as a good example. Before I joined the staff of Jimmy Swaggart Ministries, I was a lead pastor and roofing contractor. In my secular job, on any given day, I would start in Waxahachie, Texas (forty minutes south of the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex), go to my company's headquarters in Plano (an hour north of the Metroplex) and then wind up on the west side of Fort Worth for an inspection or adjuster's meeting. Keep in mind that my church was in Farmersville, which is way back over on the east side.

I'm not telling you this to impress (or depress) you, but to let you know that a bivocational minister must guard his schedule and be very intentional with time management. If you don't work your schedule, it will work you.

When feeling overwhelmed by pressures of a job and ministry, God reminds us of the importance of rest. We must intentionally set aside time for rest. Doing this requires discipline and time management so we can unplug our brains for a while. If we take the time to slow down, calm down, and bow down to our Lord's design for creation and wisdom for our lives, He can impress upon our hearts what is important in life. The Lord will do this if we slow down, calm down, worship Him, and listen for His Holy Spirit to speak to us. Proper time management will help us get the rest we need.

2. Overcome Insecurity

One of the worst traps for any minister is the game of comparison. Social media has made comparing so easy for us, and we measure ourselves and our definition of success against each other.

As a bivocational minister, it's easy to doubt your calling and feel, "If I am really called to this, then I shouldn't have to work a secular job to support myself?"

A close friend of mine who I served on staff with years ago was recently installed as the lead pastor in a church where he had served eleven years. I went by the campus of his church to visit and say hello before I had to do a roof inspection in the area. I must admit that when I pulled up to his beautiful $7 million facility, I was envious at best and downright jealous at worst. The Holy Spirit convicted me almost immediately and reminded me that He had not call me to be my friend; He called me to be me. My friend had worked very hard to get where he was, and I knew first-hand that his ministry had not been a cake walk.

When you take on a church revitalization project, you must stay realistic with your goals. If you are like some church planters, and your church explodes to five thousand people in a relatively short amount of time, then more power to you, but that is the exception, not the norm.

I’ve found joy in small victories like launching a new ministry from our church where we did car repairs for single moms and the elderly on fixed incomes because we had a mechanic who donated his time and shop to us. Or when we joined with other churches in town to support the food pantry and clothing thrift store in our town.

When I was an undergrad student in Bible college, a missionary preached in chapel one morning and gave a message that has stuck with me through the years. His message was simply “Just show up.” If you will be faithful and just show up, it is amazing what God will do through you when you are in the right place.

3. Trust God

Trusting God is a common theme throughout the life of any Christian.

Being in both commission-based sales and church revitalization really stretched my concept of how much I trusted God.

The largest roof I ever put on was for a $2 million home in Plano, which is a very affluent area. I walked up to the door of that home, knocked, and prayed, “Lord if this roof has damage, then someone has to put a roof on it. Please let it be me!” Much to my shock, the roof did have damage and the customer wanted to go with me as the contractor. Then I met with the adjuster. He said, “We don’t have to get on the roof” and used a drone to take pictures and look for damages. He said, “Yeah, I’m going to replace the roof, gutters, and downspouts.”

My jaw dropped because I couldn’t find any damage on the gutters or downspouts, but who was I to argue with him? There was plenty of business out there, and this roof taught me that God was going to lead me to my share.

I trust God that there will be a time when the finances will be there for you to be able to devote full time to your church.

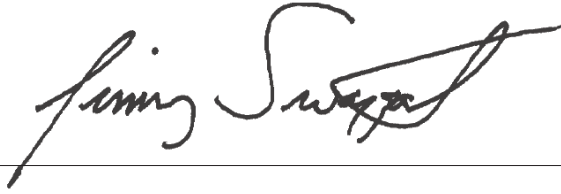

Until then, enjoy being salt and light at your secular job. It was amazing how many talks about theology and life I had with people I worked with once they knew I was a pastor and how many of them I had the opportunity to pray with.

The first part of Zechariah 4:10 says, “For who hath despised the day of small things?” If you are a bivocational pastor, put these words in your heart and be amazed at what God will do in your ministry.

There is an old saying regarding church planting versus church revitalization that says it is easier to give birth than to raise something from the dead. That is true in most cases. But don’t neglect the times when God is calling to resurrect the dead. Some churches need a steady-handed man or woman of God to lead a turnaround. The right thing at the wrong time is failure. The wrong thing at the wrong time is disaster. But the right thing at the right time is success. 🚀

FROM ME TO YOU

LIVING FOR GOD

Last month, I dealt with the promise of God given to me as it regards how to live for God. I had mentioned how the Lord told me, “I’m going to show you some things about the Holy Spirit that you do not now know.” I also related that when the Lord spoke to me, I was somewhat taken aback. The Holy Spirit is God, and there are all types of things about Him that I do not know; however, I knew the Lord was speaking of the problem at hand, namely, how to live for God—how to live a victorious life.

NO, THE LORD does not teach sinless perfection. If we understood anything about sin, we would know that it’s really not possible for us to reach the position of perfection in this life. But we can have victory over sin, that it not dominate us.

Paul plainly said, “Sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are living under grace and not law” (Rom. 6:14). But the sad fact is, sin does have dominion over most Christians, simply because they do not know how to live for God. In other words, they try to do everything themselves, mostly out of ignorance. It never works because it cannot work. Sin is powerful, so powerful that it took the death of Christ on the cross to address this monster. But thank God He did go to the cross to pay a ransom we could not pay, to solve the problem we could not solve, to give us victory over the world, the flesh, and the devil.

But the truth is, most Christians don’t know what Jesus actually did, and they keep trying to do this thing themselves but never succeeding.

The Cross

Now the cross enters the picture, very simply stated but so powerful. I remember it was one of our morning prayer meetings, and there were probably only about twenty people there, if that.

Little did I realize what the Lord would show me that morning when we went to prayer. All of a sudden, the Lord spoke this to my heart:

- The answer for which you seek is found in the cross.
- The solution you seek is found in the cross.
- The answer you seek is found only in the cross.

There was not much said, but what was said was a powerhouse.

The first thought I had was about the Holy Spirit even though the Lord, at this time, never mentioned the Holy Spirit. I sought the Lord earnestly about this, but there was no answer.

Nevertheless, what the Lord did show me that day was a powerhouse of “Sin is powerful, so powerful that it took the death of Christ on the cross to address this monster.”

unprecedented proportions: “The answer for which you seek is found only in the cross.” In other words, victory over sin is found only in the cross.

Immediately, I began to teach this great subject over our morning radio program. If I remember correctly, we only had three radio stations then. The Lord still did not mention to me anymore about the Holy Spirit, but I knew that the Holy Spirit played a great part in all that we did, for the Lord, by the power of the Holy Spirit, had helped me to touch this world for Christ, actually seeing untold thousands brought to saving knowledge of Jesus Christ.

I knew that I didn't have the entire picture, only a part, but what little I did have was enough to cause me to realize there was much more to come. And to be sure that was exactly correct—there was much more to come.

The Means

There was so much I did not know, and I understood that readily. How was it that the cross was the answer to our problem? What part did it play?

We were in a campmeeting which took place very shortly after the Lord had given me this word that I just gave to you. I was to preach that night, so I went to prayer seeking the Lord about the service. I was physically exhausted, so I stretched out on the floor to importune the Lord to give me that which He wanted me to give to the people that night.

I remember asking, “Lord how is the cross our solution?”

The Lord spoke to my heart and said, “Jesus Christ is the source of all things that you receive from God, but the cross is the means.”

In other words, the cross is what makes it all possible, the price that Jesus there paid, the great work that He accomplished.

To be sure, if God could have done it any other way than having His Son go through the horror of the cross, that He would have done. But He didn't do it another way, simply because it could not be done any other way.

So, what did He mean by “the cross is the means”?

Everything

It simply means that every single thing we receive from God, and I mean everything, is made possible by the cross—forgiveness of sin, victory over sin, gifts of the Spirit, fruit of the Spirit, eternal life—these things are just the tip of the iceberg, so to speak, in comparison to what He did for us at the cross. I'll say it again, the cross of Christ is the means by which all of these wonderful things are done.

I'm going to pick this up next month with the next installment, and you won't want to miss it!

In the Master's service, yours,

The dates are July 20-24, and this is a campmeeting designed for the entire family from kids to grandparents to everyone in-between. God ordained the family, and Satan is unleashing all he has against moms and dads and the children they are trying to raise in the ways of the Lord. I invite you to make this camp part of your summer plans and experience these Spirit-filled services for yourself. We hear from so many parents after this camp how these services gave opportunity for the Holy Spirit to minister to their sons and their daughters as only He can. Praise God.
